

waiver extending the time requirements to 4 years for annual and biennial testing on locomotives that are not equipped with air dryers.

AAR proposes two alternatives for FRA to consider. The first is to expand the current waiver, Docket Number FRA 2005–21325 for locomotives equipped with air dryers to include locomotives not equipped with air dryers. The other option is a distinct test program for locomotives not equipped with air dryers. AAR is amenable to a test program with the following features:

- On locomotives approaching 3 years since the prior annual and biennial tests were performed, a full air test would be run with the valves untouched. On locomotives that pass the air tests, the valves would be marked with either a tag or stencil identifying them as part of the test waiver. The FRA blue card would annotate to reflect that the unit is operating under the test waiver. Any valve replaced during the test period would be sent to Wabtec Corporation for analysis. The railroads would keep track of all brake failures occurring during the test period.

- 6 months into the waiver period, one locomotive operating under the waiver will be selected from the test group of each participating railroad. Eligible locomotives would be locomotives that have not had any air brake valves replaced for a 3½ year time period. These valve sets will be removed from the locomotives and sent to Wabtec for a joint tear-down inspection with FRA and members of the AAR Brake Systems and Locomotive Committees.

- 1 year into the test period, one locomotive will be selected from the test group of each participating railroad. Eligible locomotives would be those that had not had any brake valve replacements for 4 years. These valve sets will be removed and sent to Wabtec for another joint tear-down inspection.

- If it is determined by the tear-down inspections that the lack of an air-dryer has no effect on the performance of the air brake system, FRA would then expand waiver Docket Number FRA–2005–21325 to include locomotives without air dryers.

AAR does not believe any safety hazard will be created, and looks forward to working with FRA on a waiver test program which will demonstrate that an extended time interval between tests will not adversely affect safety on locomotives not equipped with air dryers.
