Notice of a Change in Status of an Extended Benefit (EB) Period for Arkansas

AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces a change in benefit period eligibility under the EB program for Arkansas.

The following change has occurred since the publication of the last notice regarding Arkansas' EB status:

- The 13-week insured unemployment rate (IUR) for Arkansas for the week ending March 28, 2009, rose to 5.0 percent and exceeded 120 percent of the corresponding average rates in the two prior years. Therefore, effective April 12, 2009, eligible unemployed workers will be able to collect up to an additional 13 weeks of UI benefits.

Information for Claimants

The duration of benefits payable in the EB program, and the terms and conditions on which they are payable, are governed by the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended, and the operating instructions issued to the states by the U.S. Department of Labor. In the case of a state beginning an EB period, the State Workforce Agency will furnish a written notice of potential entitlement to each individual who has exhausted all rights to regular benefits and is potentially eligible for EB (20 CFR 615.13(c)(1)).

Persons who believe they may be entitled to EB or who wish to inquire about their rights under the program should contact their State Workforce Agency.

Notice of a Change in Status of an Extended Benefit (EB) Period for California

AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces a change in benefit period eligibility under the EB program for California.

The following change has occurred since the publication of the last notice regarding California's EB status:

- California Assembly Bill 23C enacted on March 27, 2009, added a total unemployment rate (TUR) trigger to the State's EB law retroactive to February 1, 2009. As a result, California has retroactively triggered "on" to a high unemployment period for weeks of unemployment beginning February 22, 2009, and eligible unemployed workers will be able to collect up to an additional 20 weeks of unemployment insurance benefits.
