SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Description of the System of Records

The System of Records "Current and Former Accredited Representative, Claims Agent, Representative and Claims Agent Applicant and Rejected Applicant and Attorney Records—VA" (01VA022) contains VA's accreditation records. Accreditation means authorization by VA to assist claimants with the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for veterans benefits. 38 CFR 14.627(a). VA accredits claims agents, attorneys, and representatives of recognized veterans service organizations to ensure that claimants for benefits have responsible, qualified representation before the Department. 38 CFR 14.626.

Before granting accreditation, VA's Office of the General Counsel (OGC) verifies the training, qualifications, and character and fitness of prospective agents, attorneys, and representatives of veterans service organizations through an application process. 38 CFR 14.629. After accreditation, OGC monitors the conduct of individuals providing representation through communications with the individuals providing representation, claimants for benefits, and other VA offices. When appropriate, OGC initiates proceedings to suspend or cancel accreditation. 38 CFR 14.633.

Statute and regulation provide a one-time exception to the requirement for formal VA accreditation in that an individual may provide representation on a particular claim before VA. 38 U.S.C. 5903; 38 CFR 14.630. Although VA does not "accredit" such individuals based on a review of their personal qualifications, individuals providing representation under this provision must comply with the same standards of conduct for representation before VA as apply to claims agents and attorneys. 38 U.S.C. 5903(b). VA may suspend or cancel this authorization under the provisions of 38 CFR 14.633.

VA last amended System of Records 01VA022 in December 2002. Since then, Congress has amended chapter 59 of title 38, United States Code, governing the accreditation of individuals for the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for benefits before VA. See The Veterans Benefits, Health Care, and Information Technology Act of 2006, Public Law 109-461, section 101, 120 Stat. 3403 (2006). Several provisions of amended chapter 59 require collection, maintenance, and retrieval of information from new sources. In section 5904(a)(2), Congress directed that VA publish regulations requiring as a condition of accreditation for attorneys and agents, either a specific level of experience or the
