ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[FRL-8914-4]

Cross-Media Electronic Reporting Rule State Authorized Program Revision Approval: State of Utah

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces EPA's approval, under regulations for Cross-Media Electronic Reporting, of the State of Utah's request to revise certain of their EPA-authorized programs to allow electronic reporting.

DATES: EPA's approval is effective June 8, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Evi Huffer, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Environmental Information, Mail Stop 2823T, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20460, (202) 566-1697, huffer.evi@epa.gov, or David Schwarz, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Environmental Information, Mail Stop 2823T, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20460, (202) 566-1704, schwarz.david@epa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 13, 2005, the final Cross-Media Electronic Reporting Rule (CROMERR) was published in the Federal Register (70 FR 59848) and codified as Part 3 of title 40 of the CFR. CROMERR establishes electronic reporting as an acceptable regulatory alternative to paper reporting and establishes requirements to assure that electronic documents are as legally dependable as their paper counterparts. Under Subpart D of CROMERR, state, tribal or local government agencies that receive, or wish to begin receiving, electronic reports under their EPA-authorized programs must apply to EPA for a revision or modification of those programs and get EPA approval. Subpart D provides standards for such approvals based on consideration of the electronic document receiving systems that the state, tribe, or local government will use to implement the electronic reporting. Additionally, in § 3.1000(b) through (e) of 40 CFR Part 3, Subpart D provides special procedures for program revisions and modifications to allow electronic reporting, to be used at the option of the state, tribe or local government in place of procedures available under existing program-specific authorization regulations. An application submitted under the Subpart D procedures must show that the state, tribe or local government has sufficient legal authority to implement the electronic reporting components of the programs covered by the application and will use electronic document receiving systems that meet the applicable Subpart D requirements.

On December 23, 2008, the State of Utah Department of Environmental Quality (UTDEQ) submitted an application for their Net Discharge Monitoring Report (NetDMR) electronic document receiving system application for revision of their EPA-authorized 40 CFR Part 123—NPDES State Program Requirements.

EPA has reviewed UTDEQ's request to revise their EPA-authorized program and, based on this review, EPA has determined that the application for the program identified in this Notice meet the standards for approval of authorized program revisions/modifications set out in 40 CFR part 3, subpart D. In accordance with 40 CFR 3.1000(d), this notice of EPA's decision to approve UTDEQ's request for revision to their authorized program is being published in the Federal Register. Specifically, EPA has approved Utah's request for revision to their 40 CFR Part 123—NPDES State Program Requirements authorized program for electronic reporting of discharge monitoring report information.

UTDEQ was notified of EPA's determination to approve its application with respect to the authorized program listed above in a letter dated May 28, 2009.

Dated: May 28, 2009.

Lisa Schlosser,

Director, Office of Information Collection.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Establishment of the FDIC Advisory Committee on Community Banking

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has decided to establish the FDIC Advisory Committee on Community Banking ("the Committee"). The Committee will provide advice and recommendations on a broad range of policy issues that have a particular impact on small community banks throughout the United States and the local communities that are served by those community banks, including a focus on rural areas. The Committee will review various issues concerning community banks that may include, but are not limited to, the latest examination policies and procedures, credit and lending practices, deposit insurance assessments, insurance coverage issues, and regulatory compliance matters, as well as any obstacles to the continued growth and ability of community banks to extend financial services in their local markets in the current market environment. The Chairman certifies that the establishment of this advisory committee is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed on the FDIC by law.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert E. Feldman, Executive Secretary, FDIC, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429; telephone (202) 898-7043. Additional information is available at <http://www.fdic.gov/communitybanking>. If you are interested in being considered for membership on this Advisory Committee, send your resume or biographical information, as well as a brief summary (limited to one page in length) of the reason(s) you are interested in serving on the Advisory Committee, and how you are qualified to represent a particular group or industry sector, by July 3, 2009, to the following e-mail address: CommunityBanking@fdic.gov.

Committee members will not receive any compensation for their services other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses incurred to attend Advisory Committee meetings.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA") 5 U.S.C. App. 2, notice is hereby given that the Chairman of the FDIC intends to establish the FDIC Advisory Committee on Community

Banking ("the Committee"). After consultation with the General Services Administration, as required by section 9(a)(2) of FACA and 41 CFR 102-3.65, the Chairman of the FDIC certifies that she has determined that the establishment of the Committee is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed on the FDIC by law. The Committee will provide advice and recommendations on a broad range of policy issues that have a particular impact on small community banks throughout the United States and the local communities that are served by those community banks, including a focus on rural areas. The Committee will review various issues concerning community banks that may include, but are not limited to, the latest examination policies and procedures, credit and lending practices, deposit insurance assessments, insurance coverage issues, and regulatory compliance matters, as well as any obstacles to the continued growth and ability of community banks to extend financial services in their local markets in the current market environment. The Committee will function solely as an advisory body, and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The Committee will represent community banks of various sizes and charter types, both urban and rural, from different regions of the country, and members of the Committee may also represent individuals, small businesses, not-for-profit community organizations, or other entities that rely on community banks to provide credit and other banking services in their communities, as well as one or more representatives from academic institutions.

Dated at Washington, DC, this 3rd day of May, 2009.

Valerie J. Best,

Assistant Executive Secretary.
