

public regarding resource protection, visitor use, and land management. All scoping comments must be postmarked or transmitted by September 25, 2009.

Comments may be provided online through the NPS Planning, Environment and Public Comment Web site <http://parkplanning.nps.gov/depo>. If it is more convenient, or if you do not have access to a computer, written comments may also be addressed to: General Management Plan, Devils Postpile National Monument, Attn: Deanna Dulen, Superintendent, P.O. Box 3999, Mammoth Lakes, California 93546. Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

During the summer of 2009, the NPS, in cooperation with the Inyo National Forest, will host two rounds of public open houses in Mammoth Lakes, California. These open houses are planned for July 8 and July 9, 2009 and for September 9 and September 10, 2009. Detailed information including times, specific locations and directions for these meetings will be posted on the GMP project Web site at <http://parkplanning.nps.gov/depo>. All attendees will be given the opportunity to ask questions and provide comments to the planning team. The GMP Web site will provide the most up-to-date information regarding the project, including project description, planning updates, meeting notices, reports and documents, and useful links associated with the planning process.

Decision Process: Following the scoping phase and consideration of public concerns and other agency comments, a Draft EIS/GMP will be prepared and released for public review (at this time anticipated to occur in summer 2011). Availability of the forthcoming Draft EIS/GMP will be formally announced through the publication of a Notice of Availability in the Federal Register, as well as through local and regional news media, direct mailing to the project mailing list, and via the Internet at <http://www.nps.gov/depo/parkmgmt/plan.htm>.

Following due consideration of all agency and public comment, a Final EIS will be prepared (at this time the final plan is expected to be available in 2012). As a delegated EIS, the official responsible for the final decision on the proposed plan is the Regional Director, Pacific West Region, National Park Service. Subsequently, the official responsible for implementation of the approved plan is the Superintendent, Devils Postpile National Monument.

Dated: May 13, 2009.

Jonathan B. Jarvis,

Regional Director, Pacific West.
