SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Abstract

The Department has issued regulations prescribing procedures by which an Indian Tribe may reassume jurisdiction over Indian child proceedings when a State asserts any jurisdiction. Tribes have the right to pursue this alternative because this action is authorized by the Indian Child Welfare Act, Public Law 95-608, 92 Stat. 3069, 25 U.S.C. 1918. A 60-day notice for public comments was published in the Federal Register on February 27, 2009. No comments were received regarding this collection.

II. Request for Comments

The Department invites comments on:

(1) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the Bureau's estimate of the burden of the information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and,

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated electronic, mechanical, or other collection techniques or forms of information technology.

Please submit your comments to the persons listed in the ADDRESSES section. Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address or other personally identifiable information, be advised that your entire comment—including your personally identifiable information—may be made public at any time. While you may request that we withhold your personally identifiable information, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

OMB has up to 60 days to approve or disapprove this information collection, but may respond after 30 days. To ensure maximum consideration, send your comments to OMB by the date listed in the DATES section near the beginning of this notice.
