

required to submit invoices identifying the specific treasury securities to be delivered and the amounts the receiving clearing members must pay in settlement of the actual deliveries. On the second business day following the submission of a delivery intent, the treasury securities will be delivered and payment will be made through the correspondent banks of the delivering and receiving clearing members.

2. Settlement Failure

OCC is also proposing to add rules to Chapter 13 to address the direct settlement between clearing members for the delivery of the underlying treasury securities upon maturity of the Treasury Futures and to address failure to complete settlement. Specifically, in the event that either the delivering clearing member or the receiving clearing member with respect to a physically-settled futures contract believes that a failure to settle has occurred without proper cause, such clearing member will need to notify OCC of such failure by a set cut-off time. Then, OCC will determine whether delivery has in fact failed and if necessary determine the damages.

OCC's transactional guarantee will be limited to paying reasonable damages as determined by OCC in accordance with Rule 1308B. Rule 1308B provides that in the event of such a failure OCC will make payment to the non-defaulting clearing member in an amount equal to the damages incurred by the non-defaulting clearing member from such failure as determined by OCC. Such damages would be charged by OCC to the defaulting clearing member. OCC is proposing to add provisions to its By-Laws addressing inability to deliver underlying treasury securities similar to the provisions of Articles XIII of the By-Laws addressing the inability to deliver treasury securities upon the exercise of options on treasury securities.

OCC states that the proposed changes to OCC's By-Laws and Rules are consistent with the purposes and requirements of Section 17A of the Act⁶ because the changes are designed to permit OCC to perform clearing services for products that are subject to the jurisdiction of the CFTC without adversely affecting OCC's obligations with respect to the prompt and accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions or the protection of investors and the public interest. The changes accomplish this purpose by applying substantially the same rules and procedures to transactions in Treasury Futures as OCC applies to transactions in security futures and securities options. The proposed rule change is not inconsistent with any rules of OCC including any rules proposed to be amended.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would impose any burden on competition.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

OCC has not solicited or received written comments relating to the proposed rule change. OCC will notify the Commission of any written comments it receives.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act⁷ and Rule 19b-4(f)(4)⁸ thereunder because it effects a change in an existing service of a registered clearing agency that does not adversely affect the safeguarding of securities and funds in the custody or control of the clearing agency or for which it is responsible and does not significantly affect the respective rights or obligations of the clearing agency or persons using the service. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
