CSOSA Blanket Routine Uses

Subject: Blanket Routines Uses Applicable to More than One CSOSA Privacy Act System of Records.

Applicability: The following routine uses describe those types of disclosures which are common to more than one CSOSA Privacy Act system of records for which CSOSA is establishing as "blanket" routine uses. These blanket routine uses supplement but do not replace any routine uses that are separately published in the notices of individual record systems to which the blanket routine uses apply.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in CSOSA Systems, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses: System records may be disclosed to the following persons or entities under the circumstances or for the purposes described below to the extent such disclosures are compatible with the purposes for which the information was collected.

CSOSA-9 (Supervision Offender Case File)

A. To any civil or criminal law enforcement agency, whether Federal, State, or local or foreign, which requires information relevant to a civil or criminal investigation to the extent necessary to accomplish their assigned duties unless prohibited by law or regulation.

B. To a Federal, State, local, foreign, or international law enforcement agency to assist in the general crime prevention and detection efforts of the recipient agency or to provide investigative leads to such agency.

C. To the appropriate Federal, State, local, foreign or other public authority responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order where CSOSA becomes aware of an indication of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation unless prohibited by law or regulation.

CSOSA-11 (Supervision & Management Automated Record Tracking)

A. To any civil or criminal law enforcement agency, whether Federal, State, or local or foreign, which requires information relevant to a civil or criminal investigation to the extent necessary to accomplish their assigned duties.

B. To the appropriate Federal, State, local, foreign or other public authority responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order where CSOSA becomes aware of an indication of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation.

C. To a Federal, State, local, foreign, or international law enforcement agency to assist in the general crime prevention and detection efforts of the recipient agency or to provide investigative leads to such agency.

D. To Federal, State, and local authorities participating in the JUSTIS database system through database access to limited information to permit a determination of an individual's status under supervision and the assigned supervision officer to the extent necessary for the accomplishment of the participating authorities' assigned duties.

The participants in the JUSTIS database that will have limited access to CSOSA's SMART information are the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the DC Department of Corrections, the DC Superior Court, the Metropolitan Police Department, the DC Pretrial Services Agency, the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia, the United States Marshals Service, and the United States Parole Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Notice of Proposed Information Collection Requests

AGENCY: Department of Education.

SUMMARY: The Director, Information Collection Clearance Division, Regulatory Information Management Services, Office of Management, invites comments on the proposed information collection requests as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

DATES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments on or before October 19, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) requires that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. OMB may amend or waive the requirement for public consultation to the extent that public participation in the approval process would defeat the purpose of the information collection, violate State or Federal law, or substantially interfere with any agency's ability to perform its statutory obligations. The Director, Information Collection Clearance Division, Regulatory Information Management Services, Office of Management, publishes that notice containing proposed information collection requests prior to submission of these requests to OMB. Each proposed information collection, grouped by office, contains the following: (1) Type of review requested, e.g., new, revision, extension, existing or reinstatement; (2) Title; (3) Summary of the collection; (4) Description of the need for, and proposed use of, the information; (5) Respondents and frequency of collection; and (6) Reporting and/or Recordkeeping burden. OMB invites public comment.

The Department of Education is especially interested in public comment addressing the following issues: (1) Is this collection necessary to the proper functions of the Department; (2) will this information be processed and used in a timely manner; (3) is the estimate of burden accurate; (4) how might the Department enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (5) how might the Department minimize the burden of this collection on the respondents, including through the use of information technology.

Dated: August 12, 2009.

Angela C. Arrington,
Director, Information Collection Clearance
Division, Regulatory Information
Management Services, Office of Management.

Institute of Education Sciences

Type of Review: New Collection.

Title: Beginning Teacher Longitudinal Study (BTLs) 2009–2012.

Frequency: Annually.

Affected Public: Individuals or household.

Reporting and Recordkeeping Hour Burden:

Responses: 1,891.

Burden Hours: 513.

Abstract: The New Teacher Longitudinal Survey will follow a sample of public school teachers who were in their first year of teaching in 2007–08. These teachers were first interviewed as part of the 2007–08 Schools and Staffing Survey (SASS) and were also part of the 2008–09 Teacher Follow-up Survey. They will be contacted again in 2010 as part of a second follow-up. Following this small subset of the SASS sample for at least a decade will provide much needed data on teachers' careers, attrition, and mobility.

Requests for copies of the proposed information collection request may be accessed from <http://edicsweb.ed.gov>, by selecting the "Browse Pending Collections" link and by clicking on link number 4068. When you access the information collection, click on "Download Attachments" to view. Written requests for information should be addressed to U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW., LBJ, Washington, DC 20202–4537. Requests may also be electronically mailed to ICDocketMgr@ed.gov or faxed to 202–401–0920. Please specify the complete title of the information collection when making your request.

Comments regarding burden and/or the collection activity requirements should be electronically mailed to ICDocketMgr@ed.gov. Individuals who use a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) may call the Federal Information Relay Service (FIRS) at 1–800–877–8339.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Privacy Act of 1974; Notice To Amend an Existing System of Records

AGENCY: U.S. Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: As required by the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A–130, the Department of Energy (DOE) is publishing notice of a proposed amendment to an existing system of records. DOE proposes to amend the system of records DOE–3 "Employee Concerns Program Records." This notice (i) will expand an existing routine use to permit the disclosure of certain information to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and (ii) add an additional system location.

DATES: The proposed amendment to this existing system of records will become effective without further notice on October 2, 2009 unless DOE receives adverse comments and determines that this amendment should not become effective on that date.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be directed to William A. Lewis, Jr., Deputy Director, Office of Civil Rights and Diversity, ED–4, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20585.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jerry Hanley, Chief Privacy Officer, Office of Information Resources, MA–90, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20585, (202) 586–5955; Isiah Smith, Deputy Assistant General Counsel for General Law, GC–77, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20585, (202) 586–8618; William A. Lewis, Jr., Deputy Director, Office of Civil Rights and Diversity, ED–4, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20585, (202) 586–6530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice proposes two amendments to DOE–3 Employee Concerns Program Records. The first amendment concerns Routine Use # 5, which allows a record to be disclosed as a routine use to DOE contractors in the performance of their contracts and to their respective officers and employees who have a need for the record in the performance of their duties. This notice proposes to add a similar sentence allowing a record to be disclosed as a routine use to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and its respective officers and employees who have a need for the record in the performance of their duties.
