Importation of Sweet Oranges and Grapefruit From Chile; Technical Amendment

AGENCY: Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule; technical amendment.

SUMMARY: In a final rule that was published in the Federal Register on April 7, 2009, and effective on May 7, 2009, we amended the fruits and vegetables regulations to allow the importation of sweet oranges and grapefruit from Chile into the continental United States. However, in making this change, we inadvertently amended the regulations to restrict the importation of clementines, mandarins, and tangerines from Chile to the continental United States and Hawaii, when in fact those fruits had been eligible for importation into the entire United States, including the territories. This technical amendment is necessary to correct that error.

DATES: Effective Date: September 10, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. David Lamb, Import Specialist, Risk Management and Plants for Planting Policy, PPQ, APHIS, 4700 River Road, Unit 133, Riverdale, MD 20737-1231; (301) 734-0627.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In a final rule published in the Federal Register on April 7, 2009 (74 FR 15635-15640, Docket No. APHIS-2007-0115), and effective on May 7, 2009, we amended the regulations in “Subpart—Fruits and Vegetables” (7 CFR 319.56-1 through 319.56-49) to allow the importation, under certain conditions, of sweet oranges and grapefruit from Chile into the continental United States. These conditions, which we established in § 319.56-38, are the same as those that were already in place for the importation of clementines, mandarins, and tangerines from Chile in § 319.56-38, except that clementines, mandarins, and tangerines from Chile have been eligible for importation into the entire United States, including its territories. However, in adding sweet oranges and grapefruit to the list of fruit eligible for importation from Chile in the introductory text of § 319.56-38, we inadvertently restricted the importation of clementines, mandarins, and tangerines to the continental United States and Hawaii. This document corrects that error.
