

pending the Bureau's final debarment determination.²³ In accordance with the Commission's debarment rules, you may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments in opposition to the suspension, with any relevant documentation.²⁴ Your request must be received within 30 days after you receive this letter or after notice is published in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.²⁵ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.²⁶ The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.²⁷ The Bureau will decide any request for reversal or modification of suspension within 90 days of its receipt of such request.²⁸

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

Your guilty plea and conviction of criminal conduct in connection with the E-Rate program, in addition to serving as a basis for immediate suspension from the program, also serves as a basis for the initiation of debarment proceedings against you. Your conviction falls within the categories of causes for suspension and debarment defined in section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.²⁹ Therefore, pursuant to section 54.8 of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.³⁰

As with your suspension, you may contest debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within 30 calendar days of the earlier of the receipt of this letter or of publication in the Federal Register.³¹ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will debar you.³² The Bureau will decide any request for reversal or limitation of debarment within 90 days of receipt of such request.³³ If the Bureau decides to debar you, its decision will become effective upon the earlier of your receipt of a debarment

notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register.³⁴

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism for three years from the date of debarment.³⁵ The Bureau may, if necessary to protect the public interest, extend the debarment period.³⁶
