II. Background

Effective July 30, 2008, the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 (HERA), Public Law 110-289, 122 Stat. 2654, amended the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992 (12 U.S.C. 4501 et seq.) (Safety and Soundness Act) to establish FHFA as an independent agency of the Federal Government.¹ HERA transferred the supervisory and oversight responsibilities of the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight (OFHEO) over the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) (collectively, Enterprises), and of the Federal Housing Finance Board (FHFB) over the Federal Home Loan Banks (FHLBanks or Banks) (collectively, regulated entities) and the FHLBank System's Office of Finance to FHFA. In addition, this law combined the staffs of OFHEO, FHFB, and the Government-Sponsored Enterprise mission office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The Safety and Soundness Act provides that FHFA is headed by a Director with general supervisory and regulatory authority over the regulated entities. FHFA is charged, among other things, with overseeing the prudential operations of the regulated entities and to ensure that they: Operate in a safe and sound manner including maintenance of adequate capital and internal controls; foster liquid, efficient, competitive, and resilient national housing finance markets; comply with the Safety and Soundness Act and rules, regulations, guidelines and orders issued under the Safety and Soundness Act, and the respective authorizing statutes of the regulated entities; and carry out their missions through activities authorized and consistent with the Safety and Soundness Act and their authorizing statutes; and, that the activities and operations of the regulated entities are consistent with the public interest. The Enterprises and the FHLBanks continue to operate under regulations promulgated by OFHEO, FHFB, and as relevant, HUD, until FHFA issues its own regulations.²

A. The FHLBank System

The FHLBank System (System) was created by the Federal Home Loan Bank Act of 1932 (FHLBank Act) as a government-sponsored enterprise (GSE) to support mortgage lending and related community investment. It is composed of 12 FHLBanks, more than 8,000

¹ See Division A, titled the "Federal Housing Finance Regulatory Reform Act of 2008," Title I, section 1101 of HERA.

member financial institutions, and the System's fiscal agent, the Office of Finance. The FHLBanks fulfill their statutory mission primarily through providing to its members long- and short-term loans (called advances). The FHLBank Act provides the FHLBanks explicit authority to make secured advances.³ Advances provide members with a source of funding for mortgages and asset-liability management; liquidity for a member's short-term needs; and additional funds for housing finance and community development. Advances are collateralized primarily by residential mortgage loans, and government and agency securities. Community financial institutions (i.e., members with assets less than $1 billion) may pledge small business, small farm, and small agri-business loans as collateral for advances. Additionally, some of the FHLBanks have Acquired Member Asset (AMA) programs whereby they acquire fixed-rate, single-family mortgage loans from participating member institutions. Given their status as GSEs, the FHLBanks are able to borrow funds in the capital markets on terms more favorable than could be obtained by most other entities. Consolidated obligations, consisting of bonds and discount notes, are the principal source for the FHLBanks to fund advances, AMA programs, and investments. The Office of Finance, as the System's fiscal agent, issues all consolidated obligations on behalf of the 12 FHLBanks. Although each FHLBank is primarily liable for the portion of consolidated obligations corresponding to the proceeds received by that FHLBank, each FHLBank is also jointly and severally liable with the other 11 FHLBanks for the payment of principal of, and interest on, all consolidated obligations.⁴

B. The Enterprises

Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are GSEs chartered by Congress for the purpose of establishing secondary market facilities for residential mortgages.⁵ Specifically, Congress established the Enterprises to provide stability in the secondary market for residential mortgages, respond appropriately to the private capital market, provide ongoing assistance to the secondary market for residential mortgages, and promote access to mortgage credit throughout the nation.⁶

The Enterprises fulfill their statutory mission by purchasing residential mortgages from lenders and either holding these mortgages in their portfolios or packaging the loans into mortgage-backed securities (MBS) that are sold to the public. By packaging mortgages into MBS and guaranteeing the timely payment of principal and interest on the underlying mortgages, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac attract to the secondary mortgage market investors who might not otherwise invest in mortgages, thereby expanding the pool of funds available for housing. The Enterprises finance purchases of their mortgage-related securities and mortgage loans, and manage their market risks, primarily by issuing debt instruments and entering into derivative contracts in the capital markets. Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are shareholder-owned companies and their common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Each Enterprise is a separate corporate entity with its own management and board of directors elected annually by the common stockholders.

III. Summary of the Proposed Regulation

Section 1116 of HERA amended section 1319A of the Safety and Soundness Act (12 U.S.C. 4520) to require FHFA to engage in certain activities to promote a diverse workforce. It also requires each Regulated Entity to establish an Office of Minority and Women Inclusion, or designate an office, responsible for carrying out the requirements of the section and such requirements and standards established by the Director. Section 1319A of the Safety and Soundness Act requires the regulated entities to promote diversity in all activities and at every level of the organization, including management, employment and contracting. Furthermore, 12 U.S.C. 1833e, as amended, and Executive Order 11478 require FHFA and the regulated entities to promote equal opportunity in employment and contracting. FHFA will prescribe regulations establishing a minority outreach program to promote diversity in FHFA contracting. The proposed rule supersedes 12 CFR part 906, subpart C, the FHFB regulation on minority and women outreach; therefore, 12 CFR part 906, subpart C will be withdrawn, removed, and deleted upon the effective date of a final rule.

The proposed rule would implement the requirements of 12 U.S.C. 1833e, 4520, and Executive Order 11478 in a single regulation. Section 1313(f) of the Safety and Soundness Act, as amended by section 1201 of HERA, requires the Director, when promulgating regulations relating to the Banks, to consider the differences between the Banks and the Enterprises with respect to the Banks' cooperative ownership structure; mission of providing liquidity to members; affordable housing and community development mission; capital structure; and joint and several liability. The Director may also consider any other differences that are deemed appropriate. In preparing the proposed rule, the Director considered the differences between the Banks and the Enterprises as they relate to the above factors. The Director requests comments from the public about whether differences related to these factors should result in a revision of the proposed rule as it relates to the Banks.

Additionally, although the Office of Finance is not directly covered by section 1116 of HERA, it is subject to the Director's "general regulatory authority" under section 1311(b)(2) of the Safety and Soundness Act (12 U.S.C. 4511(b)(2)), as amended by HERA. The Director has determined that the national policy and purposes of section 1116 of HERA are sufficiently important to treat the Office of Finance in the same manner as the regulated entities for the purposes of this proposed rule.

Subpart A of the proposed rule contains items of general applicability to FHFA, the regulated entities, and the Office of Finance. It defines terms used in this part, addresses FHFA's general policy and purpose of issuance, and explains how this part applies to FHFA's, the regulated entities', and the Office of Finance's equal opportunity programs. The requirements of section 1116 of HERA are limited to minorities and women. The proposed rule expands those requirements to cover disabled populations. HERA authorizes FHFA's Director to establish "standards and requirements" relating to diversity in the "management, employment and business activities" of the regulated entities.⁷ The Director considers ensuring that disabled populations are included in the management, employment, and business activities of the regulated entities and the Office of Finance an important aspect of diversity to which the requirements of this proposed rule should apply.

Subpart B of the proposed rule confirms FHFA's commitment to equal opportunity and describes activities to promote workforce diversity and equal employment opportunity within FHFA. Proposed subpart B also identifies and describes FHFA's contractor outreach activities and programs to ensure equal opportunity in contracting by FHFA, as required by 12 U.S.C. 1833e.

Subpart C of the proposed rule contains requirements for the regulated entities and the Office of Finance. It instructs each regulated entity and the Office of Finance to establish an Office of Minority and Women Inclusion, or designate an office, responsible for carrying out the requirements of the section and such requirements and standards established by the Director. The subpart requires each regulated entity and the Office of Finance to establish an equal opportunity program applying to all areas of the business, including management, employment and contracting, at every level of the organization. It requires each regulated entity and the Office of Finance to establish an outreach program to ensure the inclusion of minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities, and businesses owned by them in contracts entered into by the Regulated Entities or the Office of Finance. Further, proposed subpart C sets forth reporting requirements, including minimum contents of reports to FHFA by the regulated entities and the Office of Finance. The proposed rule observes that FHFA's activity under this subpart C and related guidance, standards, directives or orders is regulatory and supervisory in nature and may lead to regulatory or supervisory actions, including enforcement actions.

FHFA has considered that any data or information reporting requirements present operational and administrative burdens. FHFA does not consider the burden of reporting under the proposed rule to be unreasonable. Congress recognized the importance of promoting diversity in the management, employment and business activities of the Regulated Entities. Consequently, FHFA believes that ensuring compliance with the proposed diversity requirements is a one of its supervisory and regulatory duties. For several decades companies in most industries, including much of the financial services industry, have been subject to reporting requirements and enforcement with respect to diversity. Agencies requiring such reports and enforcing standards include the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs in the U.S. Department of Labor. The proposed subpart C does not seek to duplicate reporting burdens imposed by either agency. Instead, FHFA has selected specific types of information that are particularly useful in analyzing the demographic composition of workforces at every level. It also identifies for reporting similar types of data that allow FHFA to analyze diversity among the contractors used by regulated entities and the Office of Finance.

IV. Section-by-Section Analysis

Section 1207.1 Definitions

Proposed § 1207.1 defines terms used in this part.

Section 1207.2 Policy, Purpose, and Scope

Proposed § 1207.2 expresses FHFA's policy that it, the Regulated Entities, and the Office of Finance shall promote non-discrimination, diversity and the inclusion of women, minorities, and the disabled in all their activities. It explains the purpose to establish minimum standards for FHFA, the regulated entities, and the Office of Finance in carrying out the policy of non-discrimination, diversity and inclusion. Proposed § 1207.2 also makes clear that the regulation applies to FHFA as well as to the regulated entities and the Office of Finance.

Section 1207.3 Limitations

Proposed § 1207.3 provides that except as necessary for enforcement by FHFA, the rule does not create any enforceable right or benefit.

Sections 1207.4 Through 1207.9 [Reserved]

Section 1207.10 FHFA Workforce Diversity; Equal Employment Opportunity Program

Proposed § 1207.10 describes FHFA's program for promoting diversity and equal employment opportunity in its workforce and how FHFA will comply with the specific requirements of section 1116 of HERA and Executive Order 11478.

Section 1207.11 Equal Opportunity and Outreach in FHFA Contracting

Proposed § 1207.11 implements 12 U.S.C. 1833e by establishing FHFA's program for ensuring equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion in the use of contractors, and describing the agency's contractor outreach program, record-keeping and complaint resolution process.

Sections 1207.12–1207.19 [Reserved]

Section 1207.20 Office of Minority and Women Inclusion

Proposed § 1207.20 implements the requirement that each regulated entity and the Office of Finance create an Office of Minority and Women Inclusion or designate an office to fulfill the requirements of this part, section 1116 of HERA, and 12 U.S.C. 1833e(b), and provide the office with adequate resources to perform its responsibilities.

Section 1207.21 Equal Opportunity in Employment and Contracting

Proposed § 1207.21 establishes minimum requirements for each regulated entity's and the Office of Finance's equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion programs for equal opportunity in regulated entity and Office of Finance employment, management, contracting, and all other business activities.

Proposed § 1207.22 establishes a minimum requirement of an annual report submitted by each regulated entity and the Office of Finance and provides notice that the Director may require additional reports.

Proposed § 1207.23 establishes the format and minimum content required in each regulated entity's and the Office of Finance's annual report on Minority and Women Inclusion.

Section 1207.24 Enforcement

Proposed § 1207.24 explains that FHFA considers non-compliance with this regulation or with standards issued under this regulation by the regulated entities or the Office of Finance to be the basis for enforcement actions under 12 U.S.C. 4513b and 4515, and that the Director may initiate examinations of a regulated entity's or the Office of Finance's compliance under 12 U.S.C. 4517.

V. Regulatory Impacts

Paperwork Reduction Act

The proposed regulation does not contain any information collection requirement that requires the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) requires that a regulation that has a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, small businesses, or small organizations shall include an initial regulatory flexibility analysis describing the regulation's impact on small entities. Such an analysis need not be undertaken if the agency has certified that the regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. 5 U.S.C. 605(b). FHFA has considered the impact of the proposed regulation under the Regulatory Flexibility Act. FHFA certifies that the proposed regulation, if adopted, is not likely to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small business entities because the regulation is applicable only to FHFA, the regulated entities, and the Office of Finance, which are not small entities for purposes of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.
