Synopsis of the Order on Reconsideration Section of the Order on Reconsideration and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

I. Introduction

1. In this order, the Commission takes action to increase consumers’ access to seamless nationwide mobile services, wherever and whenever they choose, and to promote investment, innovation, and competition in mobile wireless services. In the Order on Reconsideration, the Commission creates a framework for voice roaming that will encourage carriers of all sizes to reach reasonable commercial roaming agreements, while also encouraging these carriers to continue investing in the coverage and capacity of their networks. The Commission will adjudicate any disputes that may arise between carriers through a tailored, fact-based process. In the Second FNPRM, consistent with the recommendation of the National Broadband Plan, the Commission opens an examination of the critical issue of data roaming, by seeking comment on the rules that should apply to roaming for mobile data services such as mobile broadband service.

2. First, in the Order on Reconsideration, the Commission modifies the automatic roaming obligation that the Commission adopted for voice and related services in 2007 by eliminating the home roaming exclusion. With this decision, the Commission continues to strive to adopt policies that balance competing interests, including—promoting competition among multiple carriers; ensuring that consumers have access to seamless coverage nationwide; and providing incentives for all carriers to invest and innovate by using available
