

DEPARTMENT OF LABOROffice of Workers' Compensation Programs*Division of Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Continuing Collection; Comment request*ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)] This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Office of Workers' Compensation (OWCP) is soliciting comments concerning the proposed collection: Application for Continuation of Death Benefit for Student (LS-266). A copy of the proposed information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the address section of this Notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addresses section below on or before November 29, 2010.

ADDRESSES: Mr. Vincent Alvarez, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-3201, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 693-0372, fax (202) 693-1378, E-mail Alvarez.Vincent@dol.gov. Please use only one method of transmission for comments (mail, fax, or e-mail).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATIONI. Background

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, (OWCP) administers the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act. This Act was amended on October 27, 1972, to provide for continuation of death benefits for a child or certain other surviving dependents after the age of 18 years (to age 23) if the dependent qualifies as a student as defined in section 2(18) of the Act. The benefit would also be terminated if the dependent completes four years of education beyond high school. Form LS-266 is to be submitted by the parent or guardian for whom continuation of benefits is sought. The statements contained on the form must be verified by an official of the education institution. The information is used by the DOL to determine whether a continuation of the benefits is justified. This information collection is currently approved for use through January 31, 2011.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval of this information collection in order to ensure that employers are complying with the reporting requirements of the Act and to ensure that injured claimants receive all compensation benefits to which they are entitled.

International Business Machines (IBM), Global Technology Services Delivery Division, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Artech, Greenville, South Carolina; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 25, 2010, applicable to workers of International Business Machines (IBM), Global Technology Services Delivery Division, Greenville, South Carolina. The Department's Notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on September 15, 2010 (75 FR 56143).

At the request of a State Workforce Agent, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers provide customer help desk support.

During the review, the company confirmed that workers leased from Artech were employed on-site at the Greenville, South Carolina location of IBM, Global Technology Services Delivery Division. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Artech working on-site at the Greenville, South Carolina location of IBM, Global Technology Services Delivery Division.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,164 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of International Business Machines (IBM), Global Technology Services Delivery Division, including on-site leased workers from Artech, Greenville, South Carolina, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 26, 2009, through August 25, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 21st day of September, 2010.

Del Min Amy Chen,

Certifying Officer, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

ArvinMeritor, Incorporated, Currently Known as Camryn Industries LLC, Including On-Site Leased Workers From QPS Companies, Belvidere, IL; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 23, 2010, applicable to workers and former workers of ArvinMeritor, Incorporated, including on-site leased workers from QPS Companies, Belvidere, Illinois (subject firm). The Department's Notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on July 7, 2010 (75 FR 39047).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in activities related to the production of automotive chassis and modules.

New information shows that ArvinMeritor, Incorporated was purchased by Camryn Industries LLC in August 2010 and is currently known as Camryn Industries LLC. Workers separated from employment at the subject firm may have had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Camryn Industries LLC.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to show a change in ownership of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected as a secondary component supplier of automotive chassis and modules to a firm covered by an active TAA certification.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-73,071 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of ArvinMeritor, Incorporated, currently known as Camryn Industries LLC, including on-site leased workers from QPS Companies, Belvidere, Illinois, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 9, 2008, through June 23, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of September, 2010.

Amsted Rail Company, Inc., a Subsidiary of Amsted, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Kelly Services and Account Temps, Granite City, IL; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 14, 2010, applicable to workers of Amsted Rail Company, Inc., a subsidiary of Amsted, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services and Account Temps, Granite City, Illinois. The Department's Notice was published in the Federal Register on August 2, 2010 (75 FR 45162).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification. The workers are engaged in the production of component parts for the rail car industry.

The Department's review shows that on January 11, 2008, a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance was issued for all workers of ASF-Keystone, Inc., a Division of Amsted, Granite City, Illinois, separated from employment on or after September 20, 2006 through January 11, 2010 (TA-W-62,177). The Department's notice was published in the Federal Register on January 25, 2008 (73 FR 4634). The certification of TA-W-62,177 did not include any on-site leased workers.

In order to avoid an overlap in worker group coverage concerning only the workers of Amsted Rail Company, Inc., a subsidiary of Amsted, the Department is amending the April 14, 2009 impact date to read January 12, 2010.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-73,924 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Amsted Rail Company, Inc., a subsidiary of Amsted, Granite City, Illinois, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 12, 2010, through July 14, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended;

And

All leased workers from Kelly Services and Account Temps, working on-site at Amsted Rail Company, Inc., a subsidiary of Amsted, Granite City, Illinois, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 14, 2009 through July 14, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 21st day of September, 2010.
