Automotive Components Holdings,
LLC, A Subsidiary of Ford Motor Company, Saline Plant Division,
Saline, MI; Notice of Affirmative
Determination Regarding Application
for Reconsideration

By application sent to this office on April 8, 2010, the United Automobile, Aerospace, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW), Local 1124, requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The determination was issued on February 19, 2010, and the Notice of Determination was published in the Federal Register on March 12, 2010 (75 FR 11925). The workers produce interior automotive components.

The negative determination was based on the findings that neither a significant number nor proportion of workers at the subject facility was totally or partially separated, or threatened with such separation, during the relevant period.

The UAW asserts that the Department has misinterpreted the statute and states that "as many as 830 Visteon workers were notified that they would be replaced" and asserts that about 1,800 workers were employed at the subject firm.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 7th day of October 2010.

Sypris Technologies, Sypris Solutions
Division, Kenton, OH; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding
Application for Reconsideration

By application sent to this office on March 19, 2010, the United Steel Workers, Local 1-109, requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The Notice of determination was issued on February 18, 2010, and was published in the Federal Register on March 12, 2010 (75 FR 11925). The workers produce trailer axles.

The negative determination was based on the findings that, during the relevant period, there was no increase in imports of articles like or directly competitive with the trailer axles produced by the subject firm, and no shift to/acquisition from a foreign country by the subject firm of articles like or directly competitive with trailer axles. The investigation also revealed that the subject firm did not supply a component part to a firm that employed a worker group eligible to apply for TAA and directly incorporated the component part into the finished article that was the basis for the TAA certification.

The request for reconsideration alleges that the subject firm used to manufacture "drive axels housings, steering arms, brake shoes and many other components in the heavy truck industry" in addition to trailer axles.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 7th day of October 2010.

Columbia Forest Products, Inc.,
Presque Isle Division, Presque Isle,
ME; Notice of Affirmative
Determination Regarding Application
for Reconsideration

By application dated February 16, 2010, workers requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The determination was issued on January 25, 2010, and the Notice of Determination was published in the Federal Register on March 5, 2010 (75 FR 10323). The workers produce hardwood veneer.

The negative determination was based on the findings that, during the relevant period, there was no increase in imports of articles like or directly competitive with the hardwood veneer produced by the subject firm, and no shift to/acquisition from a foreign country by the subject firm of articles like or directly competitive with hardwood veneer. The investigation also revealed that the subject firm did not supply a component part to a firm that employed a worker group eligible to apply for TAA and directly incorporated the component part into the finished article that was the basis for the TAA certification.

The request for reconsideration asserts that the Department has misinterpreted the statute to the detriment of the petitioning workers. Specifically, the workers allege "the Trade Act does not just look at whether the subject firm increased imports, but that imports increased in general." In support of the request for reconsideration, the workers provided various articles regarding increased imports of like or directly competitive articles from China, Canada, and other countries.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

NRC Corporation, USPS Help Desk of Customer Care Center, Including On-Site Leased Workers of Volt Consulting, West Columbia, SC; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated September 16, 2010, a worker requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The determination was issued on August 16, 2010 and the Notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on September 3, 2010 (75 FR 54187). The workers supply information technology support services and are not separately identifiable by service supplied.

The negative determination was based on the findings that the worker separations, or threat of separation, were not related to a shift in information technology support service abroad or increased imports of like or directly competitive services. The investigation also revealed that subject firm did not supply a service to a firm that employed a worker group eligible to apply for TAA and that directly used the services in the production of an article or supply of service that was basis for the TAA certification.

The worker, in the request for reconsideration, disputes the Department's findings that the subject firm did not shift to India the supply of like or directly competitive services, and provides employment listings for various information technology support service positions at the subject firm's India facility as support documentation.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Supermedia LLC, Formerly Known as IDEARC Media LLC, Supermedia Information Services LLC, Client Care Group and Publishing Operations Group, Including On-Site Leased Workers of Advantage (TAC), RESPRCONN, TATACONSSV, MODIS, AMDOCS, and Database, Middleton, MA; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated September 23, 2010, the petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the negative determination regarding workers' eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The determination was issued on September 3, 2010 and the Notice of Determination was published in the Federal Register on September 21, 2010 (75 FR 57517). The workers supply customer service in support of the subject firm's customers and internal publishing support services. Workers are separately identifiable by service supplied.

The negative determination was based on the findings there were no imports of either customer service or publishing support services by the subject firm. The investigation also revealed that the subject firm did not produce an article or supply a service that was used by a firm with TAA-certified workers in the production of an article or supply service that was basis for TAA-Certification.

The request for reconsideration was filed on behalf of a specific worker group—workers of the Ad Production-Graphics Division of SuperMedia, Middleton, Massachusetts.

The request for reconsideration alleges that because the workers of the Ad Production-Graphics Division are separately identifiable from workers in other units of the subject firm, information related to the Customer Care Department and other units are not relevant and should not be the basis for denying the Ad Production-Graphics Division workers' eligibility to apply for TAA. The request asserts that the supply of services provided by the Ad Production-Graphics Division shifted to India.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation to determine if the workers meet the eligibility requirements of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.
