In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 3, 2010, applicable to workers of SunGard Higher Education, Inc., Malvern, Pennsylvania. The Department's notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on April 23, 2010 (75 FR 21361).

At the request of State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in employment related to the supply of computer systems design and support services for colleges and universities.

New information shows that worker separations have occurred involving off-site employees of the Development Division, the Consulting Practices Division and the Actionline Division of SunGard Higher Education, Inc., Malvern, Pennsylvania. Employees working off-site across the United States are under the control of the subject firm and the supply of computer systems design and support services for the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by shift in services of employment related to the supply of computer systems design and support services to India.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the subject firm's Malvern, Pennsylvania, facility working off-site across the United States.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,972, TA-W-72972A, and TA-W-72,972B, are hereby issued as follows:

All workers of SunGard Higher Education, Inc., Development Division, including on-site leased workers of Intuitive, including off-site workers across the United States, Malvern, Pennsylvania (TA-W-72,972); SunGard Higher Education, Inc., Consulting Practices

Division, including on-site leased workers of Ciccariello Consulting, Instamation, Inc., Dynamic Methods, Collegiate, Cornelius Professional Services, Ciber, UC4 and Envisions, including off-site workers across the United States, Malvern, Pennsylvania (TA-W-72,972A); SunGard Higher Education, Inc., Actionline Division, including on-site leased workers of SICOM, including off-site workers across the United States, Malvern, Pennsylvania (TA-W-72,972B) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 25, 2008, through March 3, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 24th day of January, 2011.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers by (TA-W) number issued during the period of January 17, 2011 through January 21, 2011.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Under Section 222(a)(2)(A), the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the sales or production, or both, of such firm have decreased absolutely; and

(3) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) imports of articles or services like or directly competitive with articles produced or services supplied by such firm have increased;

(B) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles into which one or more component parts produced by such firm are directly incorporated, have increased;

(C) imports of articles directly incorporating one or more component parts produced outside the United States that are like or directly competitive with imports of articles incorporating one or more component parts produced by such firm have increased;

(D) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced directly using services supplied by such firm, have increased; and

(4) the increase in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in the sales or production of such firm; or

II. Section 222(a)(2)(B) all of the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially
