Contributions to the Telecommunications Relay Service Fund

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: In this document, the Commission proposes rules to implement the "Twenty-First Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act of 2010" (CVAA) which requires each interconnected voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS) Fund. The law directs that within one year after the date of enactment of the CVAA, such VoIP providers shall participate in and contribute to the Fund in a manner prescribed by the Commission by regulation. The regulations must oblige such participation in a manner that is consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the fund.

Needs and Uses: In document FCC 11–38, the Commission proposes rules to require contributions to the Telecommunications Relay Service Fund (TRS Fund) by non-interconnected Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service providers with interstate end-user revenues. In section 103(b) of the CVAA, Congress added a new section 715 to the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act), which directs the Commission, within one year after the date of enactment of the CVAA, to require each interconnected VoIP service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the TRS Fund established in § 64.604(c)(5)(iii) of the Commission's rules, as in effect on the date of enactment of such Act, in a manner, to be prescribed by the Commission by regulation, that is consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the TRS Fund. In 2007, the Commission added interconnected VoIP service providers to the providers of interstate and international telecommunications services that contribute to the TRS Fund. See VoIP TRS Order, published at 72 FR 43546, August 6, 2007.

The NPRM proposes to extend these obligations to non-interconnected VoIP service providers. This would require them to register using blocks 1, 2, and 6 of the FCC Form 499–A, and to annually file the completed form with the Commission. The NPRM makes other proposals regarding the TRS Fund rules that do not contain any paperwork requirements.

Synopsis

1. In document FCC 11–38, the Commission proposes rules to implement section 103(b) of the CVAA, Public Law 111–260. The CVAA added a new section 715 to the Act which requires each interconnected VoIP service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the TRS Fund. Section 715 of the Act also requires the Commission to adopt regulations to provide for obligations of such providers that are consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the TRS Fund. Currently, providers of interstate and international telecommunications services and interconnected VoIP service contribute to the TRS Fund but non-interconnected VoIP providers do not. In document FCC 11–38, the Commission proposes: to conform the definition of “interconnected VoIP service” with the definition in the CVAA and to define “non-interconnected VoIP service”; amend the Commission’s rules to specifically require interconnected and non-interconnected VoIP service providers to contribute to the TRS Fund in a manner that is consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the Fund; amend the Commission’s rules to apply the $25 per year minimum contribution requirement only to contributors who have subject revenues; and make other editorial changes to the Commission’s Rules deemed appropriate and necessary. Document FCC 11–38 also seeks comment on issues relating to the provision of free services, administrative costs of providers, possible zero and de minimis contributions, registration requirements, the completion and submission of Telecommunications Reporting Worksheets (FCC Form 499–A), adopting an interim safe harbor percentage for calculating interstate end-user revenues, reporting billed or collected revenues, and the implementation deadline.

Background

Interconnected VoIP Services

2. In 2007, the Commission extended section 225’s TRS requirements to interconnected VoIP service providers, including that such providers must contribute to the TRS Fund. Since 2006, interconnected VoIP service providers have been required to report their annual interstate end-user telecommunications revenue information on FCC Form 499–A for the purpose of the Universal Service Fund (USF) contribution requirements.

3. Providers of “non-interconnected VoIP service” have not been required to contribute to the TRS Fund and have not been required to register or report revenues through the annual filing of FCC Form 499–A for any purpose. Examples of VoIP services that are not within the Commission’s definition of “interconnected VoIP” include one-way VoIP services (i.e., services that enable users to terminate calls to the Public Switched Telephone Network (PSTN), but do not permit users to receive calls that originate on the PSTN, or enable users to receive calls from the PSTN, but do not permit the user to make calls terminating to the PSTN) and IP-based voice services that do not require a broadband connection.

Discussion

4. The CVAA defines “non-interconnected VoIP” service as a service that “enables real-time voice communications that originate from or terminate to the user’s location using Internet protocol or any successor protocol; and requires Internet protocol compatible customer premises equipment; and does not include any service that is an interconnected VoIP service”.

5. Section 9.3 of the Commission’s rules defines “interconnected VoIP service” as a service that enables real-time, two-way voice communications; requires a broadband connection from the user’s location; requires Internet protocol-compatible customer premises equipment (“CPE”); and permits users generally to receive calls that originate on the PSTN and to terminate calls to the PSTN. Section 101 of the CVAA requires the Commission to define “interconnected VoIP service” as that term is defined under § 9.3 of the Commission’s rules, “as such section may be amended from time to time.” Document FCC 11–38 proposes to amend the TRS rules to remove the actual text of the definition, and instead codify the following language provided in the CVAA: “The term ‘interconnected VoIP service’ has the meaning given such term under § 9.3 of title 47, Code of Federal Regulations, as such section may be amended from time to time.” It seeks comment on this proposal.

Participation in and Contribution to the TRS Fund

6. Carriers and interconnected VoIP service providers are currently required to contribute the TRS Fund and, since 2007, interconnected VoIP service providers have been reporting revenues for this purpose on FCC Form 499–A. The NPRM proposes to continue using that form for interconnected VoIP service and to extend that requirement to non-interconnected VoIP service providers. It seeks comment on this proposal.

7. The current FCC Form 499–A and instructions are not designed to collect revenue or other information from providers of “non-interconnected VoIP services.” The NPRM proposes that the Wireline Competition Bureau, in consultation with the Commission’s Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, make any revisions to the FCC Form 499–A or its instructions that may be necessary to effectuate the requirements of section 715 of the Act. It seeks comment on this proposal.

8. Revenue Base. Currently, contributions to the TRS Fund are assessed based on “interstate end-user telecommunications revenues.” The NPRM proposes to require non-interconnected VoIP service providers to report their interstate end-user revenues as “telecommunications revenues” on the FCC Form 499–A, for the limited purpose of determining required TRS Fund contributions, and to contribute to the TRS Fund. Requiring providers of non-interconnected VoIP services to report interstate end-user revenues as “telecommunications revenues” would be consistent with how interconnected VoIP providers have been reporting assessable revenues on the FCC Form 499–A.

9. Because some VoIP service providers offer some or all of their services free to the public, the NPRM asks for comment on how the Commission can ensure their participation and contributions are consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the TRS Fund. For example, it asks whether it would be appropriate to assess contributions from providers of free VoIP services based on revenues from sources other than the “interstate end-user revenues of such services” such as revenues from advertisers, donors, or other revenue sources. The NPRM also seeks input on whether and how to account for end-user revenues associated with VoIP services when those services are provided as part of or in combination with other services such as Internet-based customer services or video games that generate revenue, or can the revenues associated with the VoIP service be disaggregated from the revenue, if any, associated with the non-VoIP service. The NPRM seeks comment on these issues.

10. Administrative Costs to the Provider. The Senate Report to the CVAA permits the Commission to “consider administrative costs to the provider when calculating contributions” and to “determine that an obligation for any one provider could be zero or a de minimis amount.” The NPRM seeks comment on the types of “administrative costs to the provider” that could be reported and how these may be considered when calculating contributions. It also seeks comment on how “administrative costs to the provider” might be considered when calculating contributions for a TRS Fund contributor that provides free services and therefore reports no subject revenues. Additionally, if administrative costs of interconnected or non-interconnected VoIP service providers are taken into consideration when calculating contributions, the NPRM seeks comment on the extent to which they should be considered any differently than the administrative costs of carriers or others required to contribute to the TRS Fund under the Commission’s rules.

11. Minimum Contribution Requirement. Currently, carriers and interconnected VoIP service providers are required to file with USAC, by April 1st of each year, a completed FCC Form 499-A, which is used in part to calculate contributions to the TRS Fund. Filers are instructed to enter “0” on any line for which the filer had no revenues for the year. The NPRM seeks comment on whether a service that is offered wholly for free to the public would result in a filer reporting no end-user revenues for such service for the year.

12. The Commission has previously held that the $25 minimum TRS Fund contribution requirement applies to all telecommunications carriers that have end-user revenues. The NPRM tentatively concludes that VoIP service providers that have no subject revenue for the respective reporting year should not be subject to this minimum contribution amount and seeks comment on this tentative conclusion. Alternatively, the NPRM seeks comment on whether VoIP service providers that report no subject revenue for the reporting year should be assessed a de minimis contribution amount.

13. Conforming Amendments to Rules. The NPRM also proposes making conforming amendments to the Commission’s rules. The NPRM proposes, and seeks comment on, replacing the terms “carrier,” “carriers,” and “service providers” in § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(B) of the Commission’s rules with the term “contributor(s)” and replacing “interstate end-user telecommunications revenues” in § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(B) of the Commission’s rules and “interstate end-user revenues of such services” in § 64.604(c)(5)(iii)(B) of the Commission’s rules with the phrase “revenues subject to contributions.”

14. Meaning of “Participate In.” Section 715 of the Act requires each interconnected VoIP service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to “participate in and contribute to the [TRS] Fund.” The NPRM tentatively concludes that the term “participate in” includes the requirement for contributors to complete and submit a Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet (FCC Form 499-A) annually and seeks comment on this conclusion and the meaning of the term “participate in” in this context.

15. Contributor Registration. The process of completing and submitting the FCC Form 499-A includes a registration process of the filing entity. All current TRS Fund contributors have completed this registration process. The NPRM tentatively concludes that requiring all providers of non-interconnected VoIP services to similarly register with the Commission and designate a District of Columbia agent for service of process using the FCC Form 499-A in accordance with its instructions will facilitate the Commission’s enforcement of TRS Fund contribution obligations and is consistent with the congressional mandate for consistent and comparable obligations. The NPRM proposes to amend the registration requirements in § 64.1195 of the Commission’s rules to include non-interconnected VoIP service providers or to adapt those rules for non-interconnected VoIP service providers under the Commission’s TRS rules. Finally, the NPRM seeks comment on whether § 1.47(h) of the Commission’s rules should be amended to include providers of non-interconnected VoIP services among those required to designate a District of Columbia agent for service of process.

16. Safe Harbor. The NPRM seeks comment on whether, for purposes of TRS Fund contribution calculations, a non-interconnected VoIP service provider should be permitted to report its interstate end-user revenues in FCC Form 499-A by using actual revenues, using a traffic study, or using the interim safe harbor percentage (64.9 percent).

17. Billed or Collected Revenues. FCC Form 499-A filers are instructed to provide information about interstate end-user telecommunications revenues that are “billed” (or “earned”) or “uncollectible” rather than revenues “collected.” The NPRM seeks comment on whether calculations of TRS Fund contributions should be based on each contributor’s collected revenues rather than billed revenues.

18. Implementation Deadline. Section 715 of the Act requires “[w]ithin one year after the date of enactment of the CVAA” each interconnected VoIP service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the TRS Fund “in a manner prescribed by the Commission by regulation.” The one-year deadline has already been met with regard to interconnected VoIP service providers because they have been reporting revenues and contributing to the TRS Fund annually since 2007. The NPRM proposes to require non-interconnected VoIP service providers to register and designate a District of Columbia agent for service of process by September 30, 2011, using the FCC Form 499-A in accordance with its instructions. It also proposes to require all non-interconnected VoIP service providers to complete and submit FCC Form 499-A by April 1, 2012 to report interstate end-user revenues for such services for the period from October 1 through December 31, 2011. Finally, it proposes to begin assessing non-interconnected VoIP service providers for TRS contributions based on revenues reported for the October through December 2011 period for the 2012 through 2013 TRS Fund year (July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013). The NPRM seeks comments on these proposals.

Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

19. The Regulatory Flexibility Act of 1980, as amended (RFA), requires that an initial regulatory flexibility analysis be prepared for notice-and-comment rulemaking proceedings, unless the agency certifies that “the rule will not, if promulgated, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.” The Commission has certified that the rules proposed in document FCC 11–38, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

20. The RFA generally defines the term “small entity” as having the same meaning as the terms “small business,” “small organization,” and “small governmental jurisdiction.” In addition, the term “small business” has the same meaning as the term “small business concern” under the Small Business Act. A “small business concern” is one that: (1) Is independently owned and operated; (2) is not dominant in its field of operation; and (3) satisfies any additional criteria established by the Small Business Administration (SBA).

21. In document FCC 11–38, the Commission seeks comment on its proposal to implement section 103(b) of the CVAA, signed into law by President Obama on October 8, 2010, that requires the Commission to establish rules requiring each interconnected VoIP service provider and each provider of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the interstate TRS Fund beginning within one year of the enactment of the CVAA.

22. The TRS Fund compensates providers of TRS for their reasonable costs of providing the service on an interstate basis. Document FCC 11–38 seeks comment on, and proposes rules, to implement section 103(b) of the CVAA and to require providers of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the TRS Fund in a manner that is consistent with and comparable to other contributors. Document FCC 11–38 also seeks comment on issues relating to the possible zero and de minimis contributions in connection with the provision of free services and the administrative costs of providers, registration requirements, the completion and submission of Telecommunications Reporting Worksheets (FCC Form 499–A), the adoption of an interim safe harbor percentage for calculating interstate end-user revenues, and the implementation deadline.

23. Specifically, document FCC 11–38 proposes: to require providers of non-interconnected VoIP service to register with the Commission and designate a District of Columbia agent for service of process for purposes of contributing to the TRS Fund; to complete and file FCC Form 499–A annually; to permit providers of non-interconnected VoIP service to determine interstate end-user revenues by using actual revenues, a traffic study or to utilize a safe harbor; and to exempt service providers with no end user revenues for the reporting year from the $25 minimum contribution requirement to the TRS Fund. It also seeks comment on whether sources of revenue other than interstate end-user revenues (e.g., advertising, donations) should be considered when a service provider has no end-user revenues (i.e., when services are provided to the public for free) and whether TRS Fund contributions should be based on each contributor's collected revenues rather than billed revenues.

24. The Commission proposes to require that non-interconnected VoIP service providers register and designate a District of Columbia agent for service of process by filling out blocks 1, 2, and 6 of the FCC Form 499–A and to annually file the completed Form with the Commission. This is consistent with the Congressional mandate in section 103(b) of the CVAA to require providers of non-interconnected VoIP service to participate in and contribute to the TRS Fund in a manner that is consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the Fund. Such reporting would be for the limited purpose of determining required TRS Fund contributions and would not prejudice issues concerning the appropriate regulatory classification of VoIP services. It has previously been estimated that filling out the FCC Form 499–A takes 13.5 hours (i.e., less than two work days of a single full-time employee) annually. Thus, filling out the form does not have a significant economic impact upon small entities.

25. Document FCC 11–38 seeks comment on how the Commission can best ensure that the obligations of VoIP service providers that offer some or all of their interstate services free to the public are consistent with and comparable to the obligations of other contributors to the TRS Fund. Section 225(d)(3)(B) of the Act requires the Commission to adopt regulations that costs caused by interstate telecommunications relay service be recovered from “all subscribers” for every interstate service. Document FCC 11–38 seeks comment on whether it would be necessary or appropriate to assess contributions from providers of free VoIP services based on revenues from sources other than the “interstate end-user revenues of such services,” such as advertising and donor contributions, or whether TRS Fund contributions of VoIP providers should be based solely on interstate end-user revenues, even if that results in a zero contribution. Because the typical contribution historically has been slightly less than 1% of revenues annually, this will not have a significant economic impact upon small entities.

26. Additionally, the TRS rules currently impose a minimum $25 contribution on all entities, regardless of their reported revenues. Document FCC 11–38 proposes that if the Commission determines that contributions to the TRS Fund are to be based solely on interstate end-user revenues, VoIP providers and other carriers subject to TRS Fund contribution requirements with a zero contribution calculation (i.e., they either did not charge for end-user service or generated some end-user revenue but it was offset by administrative costs that cancelled out the revenue) not be subject to the minimum $25 contribution. If this proposal is not adopted, alternatively, document FCC 11–38 seeks comment on whether a VoIP service provider that reports no revenue for the reporting year should be assessed a “de minimis” contribution amount. Even if the Commission applies the minimum $25 annual contribution to the TRS Fund to providers with a zero contribution calculation, it would not constitute a significant economic impact upon small entities.

27. The Commission has previously recognized that some interconnected VoIP service providers may have difficulty complying with the end-user revenue reporting requirements because they do not have the ability to identify whether calls are interstate. As a result, the Commission established a safe harbor which estimated the percentage of interconnected VoIP service revenues attributable to interstate calls to be 64.9%. These VoIP service providers may report their interstate end-user revenues on the FCC Form 499–A by using actual revenues, a traffic study or the safe harbor. Document FCC 11–38 seeks comment on whether the Commission should also apply the safe harbor to non-interconnected VoIP service providers. Because the safe harbor is used when it reduces TRS Fund contributions, application of it to non-interconnected VoIP services will not have any significant negative economic impact upon small entities.

28. Document FCC 11–38 also requests input on whether to modify the FCC Form 499–A to ask filers to provide information on “collected” (i.e. earned) revenues rather than, as currently, on “billed” (i.e., potentially uncollectible) revenues. This would harmonize the basis for TRS Fund contributions with those for the Universal Service Fund, which bases contributions on “collected” revenues. Because it would relieve providers of basing their contribution to the TRS Fund on billed revenues, it would reduce TRS Fund contributions and therefore would not have any significant negative economic impact upon small entities.

29. Finally, the CVAA requires that VoIP service providers begin participating in, and contributing to, the TRS Fund within one year of the date of the CVAA's enactment. This deadline has been met with regard to interconnected VoIP service providers who have been participating in the Fund since 2007. To meet the statutory deadline, document FCC 11–38 proposes to require non-interconnected VoIP service providers to register by September 30, 2011 by completing blocks 1, 2 and 6 of the FCC Form 499–A, and to complete and submit the Form by April 1, 2012, reporting their end-user revenues for the period from October 1 through December 31, 2011.

This uniform registration deadline is mandated by statute and will not have a significant adverse economic impact upon small entities.

30. With regard to whether a substantial number of small entities may be economically impacted by the requirements proposed in document FCC 11–38, the Commission notes that a substantial number of small entities will be likely be affected; however, for the reasons stated above, the cumulative economic impact on such entities will be de minimis. Most participating entities are likely to meet the definition of a small entity as a “small organization.” VoIP service providers are included in the census business category “All Other Telecommunications.” This category comprises “establishments primarily engaged in providing specialized telecommunications services, such as satellite tracking, communications telemetry, and radar station operation. This industry also includes establishments primarily engaged in providing satellite terminal stations and associated facilities connected with one or more terrestrial systems and capable of transmitting telecommunications to, and receiving telecommunications from, satellite systems. Establishments providing Internet services or VoIP services via client-supplied telecommunications connections are also included in this industry.” For this category, Census Bureau data for 2007 show that there were a total of 2,383 firms that operated for the entire year. Of this total, 2,347 firms had annual receipts of under $25 million and 12 firms had annual receipts of $25 million to $49,999,999. Consequently, the Commission estimates that the majority of All Other Telecommunications firms are small entities that might be affected by our action.

31. Historically, the contributions to the TRS Fund have totaled slightly less than 1% of revenues. Moreover, many non-interconnected VoIP service providers offer their services for free and, unless revenue sources other than end-user interstate revenues are included, will have no annual contribution or the de minimis $25 contribution, depending on the outcome of this proceeding. Accordingly, the Commission concludes that a zero or $25 contribution is a de minimis amount.

32. Therefore, based on the foregoing analysis of all foreseeable economic impacts, the Commission certifies that the proposals in document FCC 11–38, if adopted, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

33. The Commission will send a copy of the document FCC 11–38, including a copy of this Initial Regulatory Flexibility Certification, to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the SBA.

(15) Non-interconnected VoIP service. The term “non-interconnected VoIP service”—

(i) means a service that—

(A) enables real-time voice communications that originate from or terminate to the user’s location using Internet protocol or any successor protocol; and

(B) requires Internet protocol compatible customer premises equipment; and

(ii) does not include any service that is an interconnected VoIP service.

6. In § 64.604, revise paragraphs (c)(5)(iii)(A) and (c)(5)(iii)(B), remove paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(D), redesignate paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C) as paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(D), and add new paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C) to read as follows:

(c) * * *

(5) * * *

(iii) * * *

(A) Contributions. Every carrier providing interstate telecommunications services (including interconnected VoIP service providers pursuant to § 64.601(b)) and every provider of non-interconnected VoIP service shall contribute to the TRS Fund on the basis of interstate end-user telecommunications revenues as described herein. Contributions shall be made by all carriers who provide interstate services, including, but not limited to, cellular telephone and paging, mobile radio, operator services, personal communications service (PCS), access (including subscriber line charges), alternative access and special access, packet-switched, WATS, 800, 900, message telephone service (MTS), private line, telex, telegraph, video, satellite, intraLATA, international and resale services. For purposes of this paragraph, telecommunications revenues include revenues from non-interconnected VoIP services.

(B) Contribution computations. Contributors’ contributions to the TRS fund shall be the product of their subject revenues for the prior calendar year and a contribution factor determined annually by the Commission. The contribution factor shall be based on the ratio between expected TRS Fund expenses to the contributors’ revenues subject to contribution. In the event that contributions exceed TRS payments and administrative costs, the contribution factor for the following year will be adjusted by an appropriate amount, taking into consideration projected cost and usage changes. In the event that contributions are inadequate, the fund administrator may request authority from the Commission to borrow funds commercially, with such debt secured by future years’ contributions. Each subject contributor that has revenues subject to contribution must contribute at least $25 per year. Contributors whose annual contributions total less than $1,200 must pay the entire contribution at the beginning of the contribution period. Contributors whose contributions total $1,200 or more may divide their contributions into equal monthly payments. Contributors shall complete and submit, and contributions shall be based on, a

“Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet” (as published by the Commission in the Federal Register). The worksheet shall be certified to by an officer of the contributor, and subject to verification by the Commission or the administrator at the discretion of the Commission. Contributors’ statements in the worksheet shall be subject to the provisions of section 220 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. The fund administrator may bill contributors a separate assessment for reasonable administrative expenses and interest resulting from improper filing or overdue contributions. The Chief of the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau may waive, reduce, modify or eliminate contributor reporting requirements that prove unnecessary and require additional reporting requirements that the Bureau deems necessary to the sound and efficient administration of the TRS Fund.

(C) Registration Requirements for Providers of Non-Interconnected VoIP Service.

(1) Applicability. A non-interconnected VoIP service provider that will provide interstate service shall file the registration information described in paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C)(2) of this section in accordance with the procedures described in paragraphs (c)(5)(iii)(C)(3) and (c)(5)(iii)(C)(4) of this section. Any non-interconnected VoIP service provider already providing interstate service on the effective date of these rules shall submit the relevant portion of its FCC Form 499–A in accordance with paragraphs (c)(5)(iii)(C)(2) and (c)(5)(iii)(C)(3) of this section.

(2) Information required for purposes of TRS Fund contributions. A non-interconnected VoIP service provider that is subject to the registration requirement pursuant to paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C)(1) of this section shall provide the following information:

(i) The provider’s business name(s) and primary address;

(ii) The names and business addresses of the provider’s chief executive officer, chairman, and president, or, in the event that a provider does not have such executives, three similarly senior-level officials of the provider;

(iii) The provider’s regulatory contact and/or designated agent;

(iv) All names that the provider has used in the past; and

(v) The state(s) in which the provider provides such service.

(3) Submission of registration. A provider that is subject to the registration requirement pursuant to paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C)(1) of this section shall submit the information described in paragraph (c)(5)(iii)(C)(2) of this section in accordance with the Instructions to FCC Form 499–A. FCC Form 499–A must be submitted under oath and penalty of perjury.

(4) Changes in information. A provider must notify the Commission of any changes to the information provided
