

governments as well as tribal communication and consultation.

ONDCP Tribal Communication Plan

In furtherance of the President's goals for tribal consultation and policy of Federal transparency, ONDCP will develop a communications plan, including new media, for regularly communicating with and requesting input from American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations about Federal drug control policies which directly affect them prior to ONDCP action.

ONDCP Continuous Review and Evaluation

ONDCP will regularly review its policies, actions, procedures, and practices to identify Federal drug control policies which directly affect American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations. These reviews will identify opportunities to strengthen and improve ONDCP's tribal consultation policy. ONDCP will also monitor its practices to ensure effective and consistent implementation of its tribal consultation policy.

ONDCP Intergovernmental Collaboration

ONDCP will participate in timely recurring meetings with other Federal drug control agencies subject to Executive Order 13175, regarding policies which directly affect American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations in order to streamline the consultation process and create consistent and effective mutually beneficial communications with American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations and urban Indian organizations. These interagency meetings will identify Federal drug control issues arising within the agencies which directly affect American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations and urban Indian organizations and which need to be communicated to the tribes or rise to the level of consultation.

ONDCP Point of Contact

ONDCP designates its Associate Director for Intergovernmental & Public Liaison as the responsible official for submitting progress reports and ensuring ONDCP's compliance with this tribal consultation policy and related action plans.

Tribal Review of Draft Consultation Policy

ONDCP will circulate the draft tribal consultation policy to American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations for review and comment. ONDCP's tribal consultation team will consider the comments received and revise the draft tribal consultation policy, if necessary, in response to comments.

No Creation of Right or Benefit

This policy is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable by law or in equity by any party against ONDCP or the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents or any other person. ONDCP shall carry out the provisions of this policy to the extent permitted by law and consistent with its statutory authorities and enforcement mechanisms.

Federal Register Notice

ONDCP will publish this draft tribal consultation policy in the Federal Register and provide a 60-day comment period.

Review of Comments

ONDCP's tribal consultation team will review and consider the comments received regarding the draft tribal consultation policy and revise the draft policy, if necessary, in response to comments received.

Final Tribal Consultation Policy Publication

ONDCP will issue its final tribal consultation policy within 90 days of the close of the comment period.

Dated: March 29, 2011.
