

announced that it was withdrawing approval of NDA 20-315, effective December 7, 2007.

Charles O'Keeffe of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Medicine submitted two citizen petitions, one dated October 31, 2007 (Docket No. FDA-2007-P-0347), and the second dated September 22, 2010 (Docket No. FDA-2010-P-0505), under 21 CFR 10.30, requesting that the agency determine whether ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness.

After considering the citizen petition and reviewing agency records, FDA has determined under § 314.161 that ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, was not withdrawn for reasons of safety or effectiveness. The petitioner has identified no data or other information suggesting that ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, was withdrawn for reasons of safety or effectiveness. We have carefully reviewed our files for records concerning the withdrawal of ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, from sale. We have also independently evaluated relevant literature and data for possible postmarketing adverse events. We have found no information that would indicate that this product was withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness.

Accordingly, the agency will continue to list ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, in the "Discontinued Drug Product List" section of the Orange Book. The "Discontinued Drug Product List" delineates, among other items, drug products that have been discontinued from marketing for reasons other than safety or effectiveness. ANDAs that refer to ORLAAM (levomethadyl acetate HCl) oral solution, 10 mg/mL, may be approved by the agency as long as they meet all other legal and regulatory requirements for the approval of ANDAs. If FDA determines that labeling for this drug product should be revised to meet current standards, the agency will advise ANDA applicants to submit such labeling.

Acting Assistant Commissioner for Policy.
