SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992 (12 U.S.C. 4501 et seq.), as amended (Safety and Soundness Act) provides that the Director is to establish standards for the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and the Federal Home Loan Banks (collectively "regulated entities") and the Office of Finance to maintain adequate records in accordance with consistent accounting policies and practices that enable the Director to evaluate the financial condition of each regulated entity and the Office of Finance and such other operational and management standards as the Director determines to be appropriate.¹ The Safety and Soundness Act further provides the Director with general supervisory and regulatory authority over the regulated entities and the Office of Finance, and requires the Director to ensure that they operate in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and supervisory guidance and directives.²

II. Discussion of Comments

On August 4, 2009, the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) published for comment a proposed regulation setting forth proposed requirements for the regulated entities and the Office of Finance to establish and maintain a record retention program to ensure that records are readily accessible for examination and other supervisory purposes.³ FHFA received comments from the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, ten Federal Home Loan Banks, the Office of Finance, and ARMA International, a professional association of record and information managers. All comments are posted to the FHFA Web site at <http://www.fhfa.gov> and have been
