SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Unemployment compensation claims, financial management, and data on disaster unemployment assistance activity are needed for timely program evaluation necessary for competent administration of sections 410 and 423 of the Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Act. Workload items are also used with fiscal reports to estimate the cost of administering the Act. Form ETA 902-A collects data on claims due to the 2010 Gulf Oil Spill.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information if the collection of information does not display a valid OMB control number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under OMB Control Number 1205-0051. The current OMB approval is scheduled to expire on July 31, 2011; however, it should be noted that information collections submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review. For additional information, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on May 8 2011 (76 FR 12760).

Interested parties are encouraged to send comments to the OMB, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs at the address shown in the ADDRESSES section within 30 days of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. In order to help ensure appropriate consideration, comments should reference OMB Control Number 1205-
