

assault who are seeking relief in legal matters arising as a consequence of that abuse or violence. The LAV Program awards grants to law school legal clinics, legal aid or legal services programs, domestic violence victims' shelters, bar associations, sexual assault programs, private nonprofit entities, and Indian tribal governments. These grants are for providing direct legal services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in matters arising from the abuse or violence and for providing enhanced training for lawyers representing these victims. The goal of the Program is to develop innovative, collaborative projects that provide quality representation to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: It is estimated that it will take the approximately 200 respondents (LAV Program grantees) approximately one hour to complete a semi-annual progress report. The semi-annual progress report is divided into sections that pertain to the different types of activities that grantees may engage in and the different types of grantees that receive funds. An LAV Program grantee will only be required to complete the sections of the form that pertain to its own specific activities.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total annual hour burden to complete the data collection forms is 400 hours, that is 200 grantees completing a form twice a year with an estimated completion time for the form being one hour.

Agency Information Collection Activities: Extension of a Currently Approved Collection; Comments Requested Semi-Annual Progress Report for the Grantees From the Transitional Housing Assistance Grant Program

ACTION: 30-Day Notice of Information Collection Under Review.

The Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) will be submitting the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register Volume 76, Number 133, pages 40934, on July 12, 2011, allowing for a 60-day comment period.

The purpose of this notice is to allow for an additional 30 days for public comment until October 17, 2011. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

Written comments concerning this information collection should be sent to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Attn: DOJ Desk Officer. The best way to ensure your comments are received is to e-mail them to oir_submission@omb.eop.gov or fax them to 202-395-7285. All comments should reference the 8 digit OMB number for the collection or the title of the collection. If you have questions concerning the collection, please call Cathy Poston at 202-514-5430 or the DOJ Desk Officer at 202-395-3176.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of Information Collection: Extension of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Semi-Annual Progress Report for Grantees of the Transitional Housing Assistance Grant Program.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form Number: 1122-0016. U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: The affected public includes the approximately 120 grantees of the Transitional Housing Assistance Grant Program (Transitional Housing Program) whose eligibility is determined by statute. This discretionary grant program provides transitional housing, short-term housing assistance, and related support services for individuals who are homeless, or in need of transitional housing or other housing assistance, as a result of fleeing a situation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and for whom emergency shelter services or other crisis intervention services are unavailable or insufficient. Eligible applicants are States, units of local government, Indian tribal governments, and other organizations, including domestic violence and sexual assault victim services providers, domestic violence or sexual assault coalitions, other nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations, or community-based and culturally specific organizations, that have a documented history of effective work concerning domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: It is estimated that it will take the 120 respondents (grantees) approximately one hour to complete the semi-annual progress report. The semi-annual progress report is divided into sections that pertain to the different types of activities that grantees may engage in and the different types of grantees that receive funds. A Transitional Housing Program grantee will only be required to complete the sections of the form that pertain to its own specific activities.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total annual hour burden to complete the data collection forms is 240 hours, that is 120 grantees completing a form twice a year with an estimated completion time for the form being one hour.

If additional information is required contact: Jerri Murray, Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Justice Management Division, Policy and Planning Staff, Two Constitution Square, 145 N Street NE., Room 2E-508, Washington, DC 20530.

[CPCLO Order No. 001-2011]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Pardon Attorney (OPA), Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a Modification of a System of Records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), notice is given that the Department of Justice proposes to modify a system of records notice, specifically the "Executive Clemency Case Files/ Executive Clemency Tracking System," JUSTICE/OPA-001, last published in the Federal Register on October 31, 2002 (67 FR 66417). This system notice is modified to include the following: (1) The system name has been changed to reflect OPA's new case tracking system, the Executive Clemency Records Database (ECRD), which replaces the Executive Clemency Tracking System; (2) removal and addition of, and changes to, routine uses of records maintained in the system; (3) clarification that the system contains records concerning persons who have been denied executive clemency, in addition to those who have applied for or been granted such clemency; and (4) other modifications to reflect current practices for the system of records. The entire notice is republished for the convenience of the public.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment. Therefore, please submit any comments by October 17, 2011.

ADDRESSES: The public, Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and the Congress are invited to submit any comments to the Privacy Analyst, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, Department of Justice, National Place Building, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Suite 1070, Washington, DC 20530.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Linda M. V. Bowe, Paralegal Specialist, 202.616.6070, Office of the Pardon Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The change in the text of the notice entitled "Executive Clemency Records Database (ECRD)/Executive Clemency Case Files" is shown below.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress on the modified system of records.

Dated: August 12, 2011.

Nancy C. Libin,

Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, United States Department of Justice.

JUSTICE/OPA-001

SYSTEM NAME:

Executive Clemency Records Database (ECRD)/Executive Clemency Case Files.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Office of the Pardon Attorney (OPA), U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals who have applied for or have been granted or denied executive clemency, and individuals who have corresponded with OPA, either directly or by referral, concerning persons who have applied for or have been granted or denied executive clemency. In addition, the categories of individuals covered by this system also include DOJ personnel, to include DOJ contractors, authorized to access and use the system.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

The system contains data, documents and correspondence, in hard copy and/or electronic format, concerning the individual case files of persons who have applied for or been granted or denied executive clemency, which may include the following: The clemency petition; character affidavits; investigatory material; court-related documents (e.g., presentence reports, judgments of conviction, and court opinions); official court-martial documents (in military cases); prison progress reports and U.S. Parole Commission notices of action; media reports (e.g., newspaper and magazine articles); and official and other correspondence (both generated and received, whether solicited or unsolicited), including correspondence received by OPA concerning an individual who has filed a clemency petition or is granted or denied clemency. Additionally, the system contains inter-agency and intra-agency reports as well as case notes, recommendations, and decisional documents generated throughout the deliberative process to assist OPA in formulating clemency recommendations to the President or otherwise performing its duties more efficiently. The system contains records regarding authorized system users, including audit log information and records relating to verification or authorization of an individual's access to the system.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

The system is established and maintained in order to carry out the duties assigned by the President, pursuant to the power granted him under the United States Constitution, Article II, section 2, to the Department of Justice (DOJ) in Executive Order of the President 30-1, dated June 16, 1893; and Executive Order of the President No. 11878 (published at 40 FR 42731), as delegated by the Attorney General to OPA in 28 CFR 0.35 and 0.36 (Attorney General Order No. 1012-83, published at 48 FR 22290), and as described in 28 CFR 1.1 through 1.11 (Attorney General Order No. 1798-93, published at 58 FR 53658); and 44 U.S.C. 3101.

PURPOSE(S):

Executive clemency case files and the records contained within ECRD are maintained by the Attorney General or his designee to facilitate and document the functions of the Attorney General or his designee in receiving, investigating, and evaluating requests for executive clemency; preparing the necessary reports and recommendations from the DOJ to the President in clemency matters; serving as a liaison with clemency applicants and the public on clemency matters; and advising the President on the historical exercise of the clemency power. The system's use of computerized records facilitates an increased level of efficiency and automation with regard to the maintenance and use of information contained therein.
