DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

National Institutes of Health

Prospective Grant of Exclusive License: Compositions and Method for Preventing Reactogenicity Associated with Administration of Immunogenic Live Rotavirus Compositions

AGENCY: National Institutes of Health, Public Health Service, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This is notice, in accordance with 35 U.S.C. 209(c)(1) and 37 CFR 404.7(a)(1)(i), that the National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, is contemplating the grant of an exclusive patent license to practice the inventions embodied in U.S. Provisional Patent Application No. 60/178,689, filed January 28, 2000 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-US-01], now expired; PCT Patent Application No. PCT/US01/02686 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-PCT-02] filed January 26, 2001, which published as WO/2001/54718 on August 2, 2001, now expired; U.S. Patent No. 7,431,931 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-US-06]; Australian Patent No. 784344 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-AU-04]; German Patent No. 60141681.308 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-DE-08]; French Patent No. 1251869 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-FR-09]; United Kingdom Patent No. 1251869 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-GB-10]; and Canadian Patent Application No. 2398428 [HHS Ref. No. E-088-2000/0-CA-05], entitled "Compositions and Method for Preventing Reactogenicity Associated with Administration of Immunogenic Live Rotavirus Compositions," and all continuing applications to International Medica Foundation, having a place of business in Rochester, Minnesota. The patent rights in these inventions have been assigned to the United States of America.

The prospective exclusive license territory may be "worldwide", and the field of use may be limited to "rhesus-based rotavirus therapeutic and/or prophylactic vaccines."

DATES: Only written comments and/or applications for a license which are received by the NIH Office of Technology Transfer on or before October 31, 2011 will be considered.

ADDRESSES: Requests for copies of the patent application, inquiries, comments, and other materials relating to the contemplated exclusive license should be directed to: Kevin W. Chang, Ph.D., Senior Licensing and Patenting Manager, Office of Technology Transfer, National Institutes of Health, 6011 Executive Boulevard, Suite 325, Rockville, MD 20852-3804; Telephone: (301) 435-5018; Facsimile: (301) 402-0220; E-mail: changke@mail.nih.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The present invention provides compositions for making a medicament and methods for the administration of vaccine compositions for protection against human rotaviral disease without significant reactogenicity. Human x rhesus reassortant rotavirus compositions were made which when administered during the first 7 to about 10 days of life, provided a composition which was non-reactogenic followed by booster immunizations at 16 to 18 weeks or 14 to 20 weeks, up to 1 year of age. The immune response induced by the initial neonatal administration of the live rotavirus vaccine composition protects the infant from the reactogenicity of the composition when administered as a second vaccine dose at or after 2 months of age. Administration of the immunogenic composition also is expected to ablate or significantly diminish the increase in the excess of intussusception observed 3 to 7 days following administration of the initial dose of rotavirus vaccine at about 2 to 4 months.

The prospective exclusive license will be royalty bearing and will comply with the terms and conditions of 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR 404.7. The prospective exclusive license may be granted unless within thirty (30) days from the date of this published notice, the NIH receives written evidence and argument that establishes that the grant of the license would not be consistent with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR 404.7.

Applications for a license in the field of use filed in response to this notice will be treated as objections to the grant of the contemplated exclusive license. Comments and objections submitted to this notice will not be made available for public inspection and, to the extent permitted by law, will not be released under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

Dated: September 22, 2011.

Director, Division of Technology Development and Transfer, Office of Technology Transfer, National Institutes of Health.

[Docket No. DHS-2011-0076]

DHS Data Privacy and Integrity Advisory Committee; Meeting

AGENCY: Privacy Office, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: On Wednesday, September 21, 2011, the DHS Privacy Office announced in the Federal Register at 76 FR 58524 that the Data Privacy and Integrity Advisory Committee would meet on October 5, 2011, in Arlington, Virginia. This notice supplements that original meeting notice.

DATES: The DHS Data Privacy and Integrity Advisory Committee will meet on Wednesday, October 5, 2011, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Please note that the meeting may end early if the Committee has completed its business.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Notice of this meeting is given under the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App., which requires that notices of meetings of advisory committees be announced in the Federal Register 15 days prior to the meeting date. A notice of the meeting of the Board was published in the Federal Register on September 21, 2011, 14 days prior to the meeting, due to the mistaken delivery of the notice to another Federal agency rather than to the Federal Register. The other Federal agency received the notice, and the Federal Register office received that agency's material. By the time the error was noted by each office and DHS was contacted, DHS could no longer meet the 15 day requirement. During the meeting the Committee will discuss draft guidance to the Department on privacy protections for information sharing within DHS. The draft guidance will be posted on the Committee's web site (<http://www.dhs.gov/privacy>) in advance of the meeting. If you wish to submit comments on the draft guidance, you may do so in advance of the meeting by forwarding them to the Committee at the locations listed under ADDRESSES in the original notice. Please include the Docket Number (DHS 2011-0076) in your comments. A public comment period will be held during the meeting from 4 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., and speakers are requested to limit their comments to 3 minutes. If you would like to address the Committee at the meeting, we request that you register in advance by contacting Martha K. Landesberg at the address listed under ADDRESSES in the original notice or sign up at the registration desk on the day of the meeting.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Martha K. Landesberg, Executive Director, DHS Data Privacy and Integrity Advisory Committee, Department of Homeland Security, Washington, DC 20528, by telephone (703) 235-0780, by fax (703) 235-0442, or by e-mail to PrivacyCommittee@dhs.gov.
