Applicants’ Representations

1. The Trust, a Delaware statutory trust, is registered under the Act as an open-end management investment company and as of November 9, 2011 was comprised of 123 individual registered series, including the SCA Absolute Return Fund and the SCA Directional Fund (the “Absolute Return Fund” and “Directional Fund,” respectively, and together, the “SCA Funds”), and 10 additional series that are in registration. The SCA Funds do not currently employ unaffiliated investment subadvisers (each, a “Subadviser”), but anticipate doing so in the future.¹ Genesis Capital, a Washington limited liability company, is, and each other Adviser will be, registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”). Genesis Capital serves as the investment adviser of the Absolute Return Fund and Directional Fund, and an Adviser will serve as investment adviser to each future Fund, pursuant to investment advisory agreements (“Advisory Agreements”). The SCA Funds’ Advisory Agreements were approved by the Trust’s board of trustees (together with the board of directors or trustees of any other Fund, the “Board”), including a majority of the trustees who are not “interested persons,” as defined in section 2(a)(19)

¹ Applicants also request relief with respect to any existing or future series of the Trust and any other existing or future registered open-end management investment company or series thereof that: (a) Is advised by the Adviser or any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the Adviser or its successors (included within the term “Adviser”); (b) uses the manager of managers structure (“Manager of Managers Structure”) described in the application; and (c) complies with the terms and conditions of the application (together with the SCA Funds, the “Funds” and each, individually, a “Fund”). For the purposes of the requested order, “successor” is limited to those one or more entities that would result from a reorganization into another jurisdiction or a change in the type of business organization. All existing entities that currently intend to rely on the requested order are named as applicants, and the Absolute Return Fund and Directional Fund are the only series that currently intend to rely on the requested order. If the name of any Fund contains the name of a Subadviser, the name of the Adviser will precede the name of the Subadviser.

of the Act, of the Trust or the Adviser (“Independent Trustees”) and will be approved by the initial shareholder of the Absolute Return Fund and Directional Fund, respectively, upon commencement of each respective Fund’s operations.

2. Under the terms of the SCA Funds’ Advisory Agreements, the Adviser is responsible for the overall management of the Absolute Return Fund’s and Directional Fund’s business affairs and selecting investments according to their respective investment objectives, policies and restrictions. For the investment management services that it provides to those Funds, the Adviser receives the fee specified in the Advisory Agreements. The Advisory Agreements also permit the Adviser to retain one or more subadvisers for the purpose of managing the investments of all or a portion of the assets of the Absolute Return Fund and Directional Fund. Pursuant to this authority, the Adviser may enter into investment subadvisory agreements with Subadvisers to provide investment advisory services to the Absolute Return Fund and Directional Fund, respectively (such agreements with Subadvisers, “Subadvisory Agreements”). Each Subadviser will be registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act. The Adviser will supervise, evaluate and allocate assets to the Subadvisers, and make recommendations to the Board about their hiring, retention or release, at all times subject to the authority of the Board. The Adviser will compensate each Subadviser out of the fees paid to the Adviser under the Advisory Agreement.

3. Applicants request an order to permit the Adviser, subject to Board approval, to enter into and materially amend Subadvisory Agreements without obtaining shareholder approval. The requested relief will not extend to any subadviser that is an affiliated person, as defined in section 2(a)(3) of the Act, of the Trust, a Fund or the Adviser, other than by reason of serving as a subadviser to one or more of the Funds (“Affiliated Subadviser”).

Applicants’ Legal Analysis

1. Section 15(a) of the Act provides, in relevant part, that it is unlawful for any person to act as an investment adviser to a registered investment company except pursuant to a written contract that has been approved by the vote of a majority of the company’s outstanding voting securities. Rule 18f-2 under the Act provides that each series or class of securities in a series investment company affected by a
