We understand that it may be difficult to place a dollar figure on the benefits of a standardized form, but seek input on the benefits of such a form. We also seek information regarding the burden of compiling the issues/programs list and to what extent the standardized form would either reduce or increase the burden on broadcasters. All comments will be considered and given appropriate weight. Vague or unsupported assertions regarding costs or benefits generally can be expected to receive less weight and be less persuasive than more specific and supported statements.
