² Notice that this filing deadline falls on a weekend. Filing deadlines are not extended when they fall on nonworking days. Accordingly, reports filed by methods other than Registered, Certified, or Overnight Mail, or electronically, must be received before the Commission's close of business on the last business day before the deadline.

³ Notice that the registered/certified & overnight mailing deadline falls on a federal holiday. The report should be postmarked on or before that date.

Dated: February 14, 2012.

On behalf of the Commission.

Caroline C. Hunter,
Chair, Federal Election Commission.
