

incurs higher costs for Singly Listed Options as compared to Multiply Listed Options.<sup>20</sup> The Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated (“CBOE”) noted in a comment letter dated June 21, 2010 that CBOE relies upon fees to, among other things, generate returns on its investments for its own popular proprietary products (such as The CBOE Volatility Index® (“VIX®”) Options).<sup>21</sup> In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed fees are reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the fees are consistent with price differentiation that exists today at all option exchanges. For example, CBOE assesses different rates for certain proprietary indexes as compared to other index products transacted at CBOE. VIX options and The S&P 500® Index options (“SPX<sup>SM</sup>”) are assessed different fees than other indexes.<sup>22</sup>

The Exchange believes that its proposal to rename the “Fee Schedule” as the “Pricing Schedule” is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the Exchange believes that the changing the title to “Pricing Schedule” more specifically describes the fees, rebates and other charges reflected in the document termed “Fee Schedule.”

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market, comprised of nine exchanges, in which market participants can easily and readily direct order flow to competing venues if they deem fee levels at a particular venue to be excessive. Accordingly, the fees that are assessed by the Exchange must remain competitive with fees charged by other venues and therefore must continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to those members that opt to direct orders to the Exchange rather than competing venues.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

<sup>21</sup> See CBOE’s Comment Letter dated June 21, 2010 to the Proposed Amendments to Rule 610 of Regulation NMS, File No. S7-09-10. CBOE further noted that options exchanges expend considerable resources on research and development related to new product offerings and options exchanges incur large licensing costs for many products.
