

collaboration, and structured discussion between health professional organizations and FDA staff. The Office of Special Health Issues serves as a liaison between FDA Centers and the public on matters that involve medical product safety and also acts as the public's link to information about the medical product approval process.

The conference will include breakout session topics from various FDA Centers including a discussion on the usability and content of FDA's Web site, information on what happens after you submit a MedWatch report, protecting patients from counterfeit and other substandard drugs/supply chain threats, and others. The goal of the breakout sessions is to exchange ideas and to encourage collaboration to promote public health. Please indicate during your registration the topics of greatest interest to you for the breakout sessions.

If you need special accommodations due to a disability, please inform Janelle Derbis, Janelle.Derbis@fda.hhs.gov, at least 7 days in advance of the conference.

Dated: August 3, 2012.
