Draft Environmental Assessment and Draft Habitat Conservation Plan for TransCanada Keystone Pipeline's Gulf Coast Project in Oklahoma

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of availability; request for comment.

SUMMARY: We, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, announce the availability of the draft Environmental Assessment and draft Habitat Conservation Plan for TransCanada Keystone Pipeline's (Keystone) Gulf Coast Project in Oklahoma, under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. Keystone has applied for an incidental take permit under the Endangered Species Act, that would authorize incidental take of the American burying beetle.

DATES: To ensure consideration of your written comments, we must receive them on or before close of business (4:30 p.m. CST) on September 17, 2012.

ADDRESSES: To obtain documents for review, see Reviewing Documents in SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION.

Comments concerning the application, the draft Environmental Assessment (DEA), or the draft Habitat Conservation Plan (DHCP) should be submitted in writing, by one of the following methods:

Email: Keystone_HCP_OK@fws.gov; or

U.S. mail: Field Supervisor, Oklahoma Ecological Services Field Office, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 9014 E. 21st St., Tulsa, OK 74129.

Please refer to Permit number TE80492A-0 when submitting comments. Please specify if comments are in reference to the DEA, DHCP, or both.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. Dixie Porter, at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Oklahoma Ecological Services Field Office, 9014 E. 21st St., Tulsa, OK 74129, or by phone at 918-581-7458.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), we advise the public that:

1. We have gathered the information necessary to determine impacts and formulate alternatives for the DEA related to the potential issuance of an incidental take permit (ITP) to TransCanada Keystone Pipeline, LP (applicant, Keystone); and

2. The applicant has developed a DHCP as part of the application for an ITP (TE80492A-0), which describes the measures Keystone has agreed to undertake to minimize and mitigate the effects of incidental take of the federally listed American burying beetle (Nicrophorus americanus; ABB) to the maximum extent practicable, pursuant to section 10(a)(1)(B) of the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended (Act). The requested ITP, which would be in effect for a period of 50 years if granted, would authorize incidental take of the ABB (covered species) resulting from activities associated with construction, maintenance, operation, and repair (both routine and emergency) of Keystone's Gulf Coast Project and associated activities (covered activities). As described in the DHCP, the proposed incidental take would occur within the ABB's range in Oklahoma as identified by the Service, which includes portions of Creek, Okfuskee, Seminole, Hughes, Coal, Atoka, and Bryan Counties, Oklahoma (permit area). The DEA considers the direct, indirect, and cumulative effects of the proposed action of permit issuance, including the measures that would be implemented to minimize and mitigate such impacts to the maximum extent practicable.

Background

The Keystone XL Pipeline Project was previously proposed by TransCanada, with a request for a Presidential Permit. The U.S. Department of State (DOS) published a notice of intent (NOI) to prepare an environmental impact statement in the Federal Register on January 28, 2009 (74 FR 5019), and public scoping meetings were conducted in connection with the applicant's requested Presidential Permit. The proposed Keystone XL Pipeline Project extended from Canada to the Gulf Coast. A draft environmental impact statement was prepared by the DOS [EIS No. 20110290, Final EIS, DOS] for the Keystone XL Pipeline Project. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) published a notice of availability of the Draft Environmental Impact Statement on April 20, 2010 (75 FR 51458). On August 26, 2011, the DOS published a notice of availability (76 FR 53525) of the final EIS and announced public meetings to solicit comments for the Secretary of State's (or her designee) consideration of the Keystone XL Pipeline with a notice that no decision would be made until the completion of a thorough review process. The EPA published its notice of availability of the final EIS in the Federal Register on September 2, 2011 (76 FR 54767). A Presidential Memorandum dated February 1, 2012, directed the Department of State to issue a denial of the Keystone XL Pipeline Presidential Permit application (77 FR 5614; February 3, 2012).

Keystone continued to develop the Gulf Coast portion of the project, including working with the Service towards the development of an HCP for the ABB. The Gulf Coast Project in this HCP follows the same route as the previously proposed Keystone XL's Gulf Coast Segment. Because the majority of impacts were previously analyzed in the final EIS developed for the Keystone XL pipeline project, a DEA, that includes the analysis from that EIS by reference, has been prepared in response to the application for an ITP for the ABB.

Proposed Action

The proposed action involves the issuance of an ITP by the Service for incidental take of the ABB associated with the construction, maintenance, operation, and repair of the pipeline and associated facilities occurring within the permit area. To meet the requirements of a section 10(a)(1)(B) ITP, the applicant has developed and proposes to implement its DHCP, which describes the conservation measures TransCanada has agreed to undertake to minimize and mitigate for the impacts of the proposed incidental take of the covered species to the maximum extent practicable, and ensures that incidental
