

requiring that the independent directors of a listed company oversee executive compensation matters, consider uniform independence criteria before hiring Compensation Advisers, and have the authority to supervise, retain and compensate these advisers. By implementing Section 10C in such a manner, the proposed amended rule does not allow listed companies to avoid the listing standards by not having a specific compensation committee or another committee that performs similar functions.

The proposed rule change is non-discriminatory and is applicable to all listed companies on the Exchange, unless specifically exempted under proposed Rule 15.5(a) and 15.5(d)(5)(e). The Exchange believes that the general exemptions from the proposed requirements that it is granting to foreign private issuers and smaller reporting companies are consistent with Section 10C and Rule 10C-1, for the reasons stated above in the "Purpose" section, including because (i) Rule 10C-1(b)(5)(ii) explicitly exempts smaller reporting companies and (ii) foreign private issuers will comply with their home country law and, if they avail themselves of the exemption, will be required to disclose that fact under existing Exchange listing requirements. The Exchange believes it is an appropriate use of its exemptive authority under Exchange Act Rule 10C-1(b)(5)(i), and that it is not unfairly discriminatory under Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, to provide general exemptions under the proposed rules to issuers whose only listed class of equity securities on the Exchange is a preferred stock, as holders of listed preferred stock have significantly greater protections with respect to their rights to receive dividends and a liquidation preference upon dissolution of the issuer, and preferred stocks are typically regarded by investors as a fixed income investment comparable to debt securities, the issuers of which are exempt from compliance with Exchange Act Rule 10C-1. The Exchange believes that it is an appropriate use of its exemptive authority under Rule 10C-1(b)(5)(i), and that it is not unfairly discriminatory under Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, to provide general exemptions under the proposed rules for all of the other categories of issuers that are not currently subject to the Exchange's compensation committee requirement, for the structural reasons discussed in the "Purpose" section and because it would be a significant and unnecessarily burdensome alteration in their governance structures to require them to comply with the proposed new requirements.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any inappropriate burden on competition.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 45 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

- (A) By order approve the proposed rule change, or
- (B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for Web site viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room on official business days between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal offices of the Exchange. OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

[Dispute No. WTO/DS450]

WTO Dispute Settlement Proceeding Regarding China—Certain Measures Affecting the Automobile and Automobile-Parts Industries

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Office of the United States Trade Representative (AUSTRO) is providing notice that on September 17, 2012, the United States requested consultations with the People's Republic of China ("China") under the Marrakesh Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization ("WTO Agreement") concerning certain measures that appear to provide subsidies such as grants, loans, forgone government revenue, the provision of goods and services, and other incentives contingent upon export performance to automobile and automobile-parts enterprises in China. These measures appear to be prohibited subsidies that are inconsistent with China's obligations under Article 3 of the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures ("SCM Agreement"). In addition, it appears that China has failed to comply with its transparency obligations under the WTO Agreement. The consultation request may be found at www.wto.org contained in a document designated as WT/DS450/1. USTR invites written comments from the public concerning the issues raised in this dispute.

DATES: Although USTR will accept any comments received during the course of the dispute settlement proceedings, comments should be submitted on or before November 12, 2012, to be assured of timely consideration by USTR.

ADDRESSES: Public comments should be submitted electronically to www.regulations.gov, docket number USTR-2012-0030. If you are unable to provide submissions by www.regulations.gov, please contact Sandy McKinzy at (202) 395-9483 to arrange for an alternative method of transmission.

If (as explained below) the comment contains confidential information, then the comment should be submitted by fax only to Sandy McKinzy at (202) 395-3640.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: USTR is providing notice that consultations have been requested pursuant to the WTO Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes ("DSU"). If such consultations should fail to resolve the matter and a dispute settlement panel is established pursuant to the DSU, such panel, which would hold its meetings in Geneva, Switzerland, would be expected to issue a report on its findings and recommendations within nine months after it is established.

Major Issues Raised by the United States

On September 17, 2012, the United States requested consultations with China concerning certain subsidies that appear to be contingent upon export performance provided to automobile and automobile-parts enterprises in China. Specifically, the United States is challenging various forms of export-contingent subsidies that China appears to provide through a program establishing "export bases" for the automobile and automobile-parts industries within China. China appears to provide export-contingent subsidies to the automobile and automobile-parts enterprises that are located in these "export bases" or that are designated as "export base" enterprises. To date, it appears that China has created automobile and automobile-parts "export bases" in the following twelve municipalities: Wuhan, Tianjin, Chongqing, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Hefei, Wuhu, Xiamen, Taizhou, Changchun, Baoding, Liuzhou, as well as in other localities in the provinces of Jiangsu, Shandong, Shanxi, Henan, Inner Mongolia, Heilongjiang, Liaoning, Hunan, Zhejiang, Yunnan, Guangdong, Fujian, Anhui, and Beijing city.

In its request for consultations, the United States identified measures that appear to provide the subsidies through China's automobile and automobile-parts "export bases" that include, but are not limited to, the following legal instruments, operating separately or collectively, as well as any amendments, or related, successor, replacement, or implementing measures: Policy on Development of Automotive Industry; Policies for Automobile Trade; Notice Regarding Application for National Automobile and Automobile Parts Export Base Enterprises; Circular of the State Council on Printing, Distributing and Implementing Several Supporting Policies for the Outline of National Medium- and Long-Term Science and Technology Development Plan (2006-2020); Circular of the General Office of the State Council on Forwarding the Several Opinions of MOFCOM and other Departments on the 11th FYP for Electromechanical Exports Growth Model; Decision To Designate 8 National Automobile and Automobile Parts Export Bases, MOFCOM; MOFCOM, NDRC Names 160 Companies as National Export Base Enterprises; Interim Measures on the Management of Fund for Optimizing Import and Export Structure of Electromechanical and High-Tech Products, Ministry of Commerce and Ministry of Finance; MOFCOM, NDRC Conference Notice on National Automobile Exports; Notice of MOFCOM and NDRC on Issuing the Measures for the Administration of National Export Bases of Automobiles and Parts and Components (for Trial Implementation); Opinions on Maintaining the Steady Growth of Foreign Trade; 2009 State Council

In addition, it appears that China has failed to comply with its transparency obligations in regards to these export-contingent subsidies. In particular, the United States has explained that the measures appear to be inconsistent with Articles 3, 25.1, 25.2, 25.3, and 25.4 of the SCM Agreement; Article XVI:1 of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994; and Paragraphs 1.2, 2(C)(1), and 2(C)(2) of Part I of the Protocol on the Accession of the People's Republic of China.
