

○ Brief abstract: This form is completed by the Court Security Officer (CSO)'s attending physician to determine whether a CSO is physically able to return to work after an injury, serious illness, or surgery. The physician returns the evaluation to the contracting company, and if the determination is that the CSO may return to work, the CSO-012 is then signed off on by the contracting company and forwarded to the USMS for final review by USMS' designated medical reviewing official. Court Security Officers are contractors, not employees of USMS; Form USM-522A does not apply to CSOs.

—CSO-229 Certificate of Medical Examination for Court Security Officers

○ Affected public: Private sector (Physicians), Individuals or households (Applicants to and current employees of the CSO contracting companies)

○ Brief abstract: It is the policy of the USMS to ensure a law enforcement work force that is medically able to safely perform the required job functions. All applicants for law enforcement positions must have pre-employment physical examinations. Court Security Officers (CSO) are contractors, not employees of USMS; Form USM-522 does not apply to CSOs.
