TRIA was enacted to address disruptions in the market for insurance for terrorism risk, to help ensure the continued widespread availability and affordability of commercial property and casualty insurance for terrorism risk, and to allow for the private markets to stabilize and build insurance capacity to absorb any future losses for terrorism events. Title I of TRIA creates the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program (Program) that provides shared public and private compensation for privately insured commercial property and casualty losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism. Pursuant to TRIA, the Secretary of the Treasury administers the Program. The Federal Insurance Office assists the Secretary in administering the Program, as authorized by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.⁴ The Program is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2014.

TRIA was originally set to terminate on December 31, 2005. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005⁵ extended the Program for two additional years, with expiration set for December 31, 2007. Section 108(e) of TRIA, as amended by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005, required the President’s Working Group to issue a report to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives about the long-term availability and affordability of terrorism risk, including group life coverage and coverage for nuclear, biological, chemical, and radiological events.⁶ The President’s Working Group issued its report in September 2006.⁷

⁴ 31 U.S.C. 313(c)(1)(D).⁵ Public Law 109–144, 119 Stat. 2660.⁶ The President’s Working Group is composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the Chairman of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (or their respective designees). The Secretary of the Treasury, or his designee, is the Chairman of the President’s Working Group. Exec. Order 12,631, 53 FR 9421
