Attachment—Summary of Market Tests

I. Introduction

The Commission proposes to establish rules governing market tests of experimental products to implement the requirements of the standards for market tests established by Congress in 39 U.S.C. 3641.

II. Statutory Authority

The Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA)<sup>1</sup> authorizes the Postal Service to conduct market tests of experimental products. See 39 U.S.C. 3641(a)(1). Such tests are not subject to 39 U.S.C. 3622, 3633, or 3642, or regulations promulgated thereunder. Id. 3642(a)(2). An experimental product may not be tested unless it satisfies each of the following conditions:

- Significantly different product: The product is, from the viewpoint of the mail users, significantly different from all products offered by the Postal Service within the 2-year period preceding the start of the test.

- Market disruption: The introduction or continued offering of the product will not create an unfair or otherwise inappropriate competitive advantage for the Postal Service or any mailer, particularly in regard to small business concerns.

- Correct categorization: The Postal Service identifies the product, for the purpose of a test, as either market-dominant or competitive.

39 U.S.C. 3641(b).

The Postal Service must file notice with the Commission and publish the notice in the Federal Register at least 30 days before initiating a market test. Id. 3641(c)(1). The notice must describe the nature and scope of the market test and explain why the Postal Service believes that the market test is covered by section 3641. Id. 3641(c)(1)(A) and (B). The duration of a market test of an
