

be advised that they can register a comment or concern about communication accommodation issues via a designated email address and/or through a toll-free number or other device provided by the call center. Deaf and hard of hearing Postal Service employees will further be advised that use of the email address and toll-free number or device to register a comment or concern does not affect their rights to file a grievance or complaint in any other process, nor does it serve as initial contact for any other process such as a grievance or EEO pre-complaint processing pursuant to 29 CFR 1614.105. The Disability Program Manager will provide qualifying deaf and hard of hearing employees and applicants with information regarding how to contact the ombudsperson. Such individuals may register a comment or concern about communication and accommodation issues they have experienced in the workplace or during their employment application process with the Postal Service. To be able to identify and address specific comments and/or concerns, individuals will be asked to supply information specific to them, such as their name, residential addresses, and identification numbers such as their Employee Identification Number (EIN) or Applicant Identification Number (AIN). If necessary, the Ombudsperson will investigate the comments and/or concerns in order to make an independent assessment.

II. Rationale for Changes to USPS Privacy Act Systems of Records

Currently, Postal Service system of records 100.900 Employee Inquiry, Complaint, and Investigative Records does not explicitly permit the Postal Service to collect AINs or retrieve records by AINs or EINs. The system of records 100.900 is being modified to account for the collection of applicant identification numbers from applicants who file an inquiry or complaint with the ombudsperson via the call center or designated email address. Additionally, to facilitate the record location process, retrievability is being updated to include Employee Identification Numbers and Applicant Identification Numbers.

III. Description of Changes to Systems of Records

The Postal Service is modifying one system of records listed below. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11), interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, or arguments on this proposal. A report of the proposed modifications has been sent to Congress and to the Office of Management and Budget for their evaluation. The Postal Service does not expect this amended notice to have any adverse effect on individual privacy rights. The affected systems are as follows:

USPS 100.900

SYSTEM NAME:

Employee Inquiry, Complaint, and Investigative Record.

Accordingly, for the reasons stated, the Postal Service proposes changes in the existing system of records as follows:

USPS 100.900

SYSTEM NAME:

Employee Inquiry, Complaint, and Investigative Record

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Investor Education and Advocacy, Washington, DC 20549–0213.

Extension:

Rule 8c–1, SEC File No. 270–455, OMB Control No. 3235–0514.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (“PRA”) (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) is soliciting comments on the existing collection of information provided for in Rule 8c–1 (17 CFR 240.8c–1), under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.). The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”) for extension and approval.

Rule 8c–1 generally prohibits a broker-dealer from using its customers' securities as collateral to finance its own trading, speculating, or underwriting transactions. More specifically, Rule 8c–1 states three main principles: (1) A broker-dealer is prohibited from commingling the securities of different customers as collateral for a loan without the consent of each customer; (2) a broker-dealer cannot commingle customers' securities with its own securities under the same pledge; and (3) a broker-dealer can only pledge its customers' securities to the extent that customers are in debt to the broker-dealer.¹

The information required by Rule 8c–1 is necessary for the execution of the Commission's mandate under the Exchange Act to prevent broker-dealers from hypothecating or arranging for the hypothecation of any securities carried for the account of any customer under certain circumstances. In addition, the information required by Rule 8c–1 provides important investor protections.

There are approximately 82 respondents as of year-end 2012 (i.e., broker-dealers that conducted business with the public, filed Part II of the FOCUS Report, did not claim an exemption from the Reserve Formula computation, and reported that they had a bank loan during at least one quarter of the current year). Each respondent makes an estimated 45 annual responses, for an aggregate total of 3,690 responses per year.² Each response takes approximately 0.5 hours to complete. Therefore, the total third-party reporting burden per year is 1,845 burden hours.³

Written comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's estimates of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Consideration will be given to comments and suggestions submitted in writing within 60 days of this publication.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information under the PRA unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Please direct your written comments to: Thomas Bayer, Director/Chief Information Officer, Securities and Exchange Commission, c/o Remi Pavlik-Simon, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549, or send an email to: PRA_Mailbox@sec.gov.

Dated: December 20, 2013.

Kevin M. O'Neill,

Deputy Secretary.
