II. Notice of Preliminary Findings

OSHA is providing notice that UL is applying for renewal of its current recognition as an NRTL. This renewal covers UL's existing NRTL scope of recognition. OSHA evaluated UL's application for renewal and preliminarily determined that UL can continue to meet the requirements prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7 for recognition. Accordingly, OSHA is making a determination that it does not need to conduct an on-site review of UL's facilities based on its evaluations of UL's application and all other available information. This information includes OSHA's most recent audits of UL's headquarters, UL Northbrook, conducted on September 10-11, 2013, and on April 4-7, 2011, in which the auditors found some non-conformances with the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7. UL addressed these issues sufficiently to meet the applicable NRTL requirements.

OSHA staff also performed audits of the UL International Services, Ltd. Taiwan site on November 6-7, 2008; of the UL Melville site on October 20-22, 2008; of the UL International Germany GmbH on June 22-23, 2009; of the UL Research Triangle Park on February 14-15, 2013; of the UL International Denmark A/S, on June 22-23, 2008 and on April 22-23, 2013; of the UL International UK Ltd. on April 18-19, 2011; and of the UL International Limited Hong Kong on November 3-4, 2008. The auditors found some non-conformances with the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7. UL addressed these issues sufficiently to meet the applicable NRTL requirements. This preliminary finding does not constitute an interim or temporary approval of the application for renewal.

OSHA welcomes public comment as to whether UL meets the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7 for renewal of their recognition as an NRTL. Comments should consist of pertinent written documents and exhibits. Commenters needing more time to comment must submit a request in writing, stating the reasons for the request. OSHA must receive the written request for an extension by the due date for comments. OSHA will limit any extension to 30 days unless the requester justifies a longer period. OSHA may deny a request for an extension if it is not adequately justified. To obtain or review copies of the publicly available information in UL's application and other pertinent documents (including exhibits), as well as all submitted comments, contact the Docket Office, Room N-2625, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address; these materials also are available online at <http://www.regulations.gov> under Docket No. OSHA-2009-0025.

The NRTL Program staff will review all comments to the docket submitted in a timely manner and, after addressing the issues raised by these comments, will recommend whether to grant UL's application for renewal. The Assistant Secretary will make the final decision on granting the application and, in making this decision, may undertake other proceedings prescribed in Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. OSHA will publish a public notice of this final decision in the Federal Register.

III. Authority and Signature

David Michaels, Ph.D., MPH, Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20210, authorized the preparation of this notice. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

OSHA recognition of an NRTL signifies that the organization meets the requirements in Section 1910.7 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations (29 CFR 1910.7). Recognition is an acknowledgment that the organization can perform independent safety testing and certification of the specific products covered within its scope of recognition and is not a delegation or grant of government authority. As a result of recognition, employers may use products properly approved by the NRTL to meet OSHA standards that require testing and certification. OSHA maintains an informational Web site for each NRTL that details its scope of recognition available at <http://www.osha.gov/dts/otpca/nrtl/index.html>.

OSHA processes applications by an NRTL for renewal of recognition following requirements in Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. OSHA conducts renewals in accordance with the procedures in 29 CFR 1910.7, App. II.C. In accordance with these procedures, NRTLs submit a renewal request to OSHA, not less than nine months, or no more than one year, before the expiration date of its current recognition. A renewal request includes a request for renewal and any additional information the NRTL wishes to submit to demonstrate its continued compliance with the terms of its recognition and 29 CFR 1910.7. If OSHA has not conducted an on-site assessment of the NRTL's headquarters and key sites within the past 18 to 24 months, it will schedule the necessary on-site assessments prior to the expiration date of the NRTL's recognition. Upon review of the submitted material and, as necessary, the successful completion of the on-site assessment, OSHA announces its preliminary decision to grant or deny renewal in the Federal Register and solicit comments from the public. OSHA then publishes a final Federal Register notice responding to any comments and renewing the NRTL's recognition for a period of five years, or denying the renewal of recognition.

SGS initially received OSHA recognition as an NRTL on March 23, 1993 (58 FR 15509). SGS's most recent renewal was on August 28, 1998, for a five-year period ending on August 28, 2003. SGS submitted a timely request for renewal, dated October 16, 2002 (see Ex. OSHA-2006-0040-0007), and retains its recognition pending OSHA's final decision in this renewal process. The current address of the SGS facility recognized by OSHA and included as part of the renewal request is SGS North America, Inc., 620 Old Peachtree Road, Suwanee, Georgia 30024.

II. Notice of Preliminary Findings

OSHA is providing notice that SGS is applying for renewal of its current recognition as a NRTL. This renewal covers SGS's existing NRTL scope of recognition. OSHA evaluated SGS's application for renewal and preliminarily determined that SGS can continue to meet the requirements prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7 for recognition. Accordingly, OSHA is making a determination that it does not need to conduct an on-site review of SGS's facilities based on its evaluations of SGS's application and all other available information. This information includes OSHA's most recent audit of SGS conducted on November 14-16, 2012, in which the auditors found some non-conformances with the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7. SGS addressed these issues sufficiently to meet the applicable NRTL requirements. This preliminary finding does not constitute an interim or temporary approval of the application.

OSHA welcomes public comment as to whether SGS meets the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7 for renewal of their recognition as an NRTL. Comments should consist of pertinent written documents and exhibits. Commenters needing more time to comment must submit a request in writing, stating the reasons for the request. OSHA must receive the written request for an extension by the due date for comments. OSHA will limit any extension to 30 days unless the requester justifies a longer period. OSHA may deny a request for an extension if it is not adequately justified. To obtain or review copies of the publicly available information in SGS's application and other pertinent documents (including exhibits), as well as all submitted comments, contact the Docket Office, Room N-2625, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address; these materials also are available online at <http://www.regulations.gov> under Docket No. OSHA-2006-0040.

OSHA staff will review all comments to the docket submitted in a timely manner and, after addressing the issues raised by these comments, will recommend whether to grant SGS's application for renewal. The Assistant Secretary will make the final decision on granting the application and, in making this decision, may undertake other proceedings prescribed in Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. OSHA will publish a public notice of this final decision in the Federal Register.
