

An RMP incorporates into one document all the information pertinent to the future guidance of a management area and may serve as, but not limited to, the basis for future resource decision making for the management area. The RMP is to chart the biological, physical, and social condition that Reclamation desires to see once all the RMP management actions have been implemented. In addition, the RMP provides sufficient detailed ways to efficiently and equitably provide recreational opportunities to meet public demand within its intended planning lifespan.

Copies of the RMP/DEIS are available for public review at the following locations:

- Antioch Library, Antioch, CA 94509.
- Natural Resources Library, Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street NW., Main Interior Building, Washington, DC 20240.
- Bureau of Reclamation, South Central California Area Office, 1243 N Street, Fresno, CA 93720.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-752 (Third Review)]

Crawfish Tail Meat from China Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (Commission) determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on crawfish tail meat from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.²

Background

The Commission instituted this review on November 1, 2013 (78 FR 65709) and determined on February 4, 2014 that it would conduct an expedited review (79 FR 10181, February 24, 2014).

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² Commissioner Rhonda Schmidlein was not a member of the Commission at the time of the vote.

The Commission completed and filed its determination in this review on April 28, 2014. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 4460 (April 2014), entitled Crawfish Tail Meat from China: Investigation No. 731-TA-752 (Third Review).

Issued: April 28, 2014.

By order of the Commission.
