I. Introduction

The Postal Service is currently selling American Express gift cards at about 5,000 post offices throughout the United States pursuant to a market test extension authorized by the Commission that is scheduled to expire on June 27, 2014.<sup>1</sup> On June 9, 2014, the Postal Service filed a request pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 3642 and 39 CFR 3020.30 et seq., to add Gift Cards to the competitive product list as a price category to the Greeting Cards and Stationery product.<sup>2</sup> It proposes that the product name be changed to Greeting Cards, Gift Cards, and Stationery in the competitive product list. Request at 1.

II. Postal Service Filing

Request for an interim order. Recognizing that the Commission may not be able to complete its review of the Request by the expiration of the market test, the Postal Service requests that the Commission issue an interim order before June 27, 2014, allowing the Postal Service to continue selling the open loop cards currently available at post offices until a final order is issued in this proceedings. Id. at 1-2. Absent such an order, the Postal Service states that requiring it "to pull these gift cards from Post Offices pending a final order in this proceeding" would be inefficient and harmful to customers. Id. at 2.<sup>3</sup>

The Postal Service Request. The Request includes a copy of the Governors' Decision and Certification (Attachment A), a Statement of Supporting Justification to demonstrate the Request meets the criteria in 39 U.S.C. 3642 (Attachment B) and proposed Mail Classification Schedule (MCS) language (Attachment C). The Postal Service also filed on June 9, 2014 a notice of filing a non-public library reference with estimated cost coverage calculations in an Excel workbook with revenue and cost information together with an Application for Non-Public Treatment for the protection of the information as Attachment A to the Notice.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Docket No. MT2011-2, Order Granting Extension of Gift Card Market Test, July 19, 2013 (Order No. 1781). The market test was initially authorized by Order No. 721, Order Authorizing Gift Card Market Test, April 28, 2011. Market tests are limited to 24 month's duration with a possible extension not to exceed an additional 12 months. 39 U.S.C. 3641(d).

<sup>2</sup> Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Gift Cards as a New Price Category in the Greeting Cards and Stationery Product, June 9, 2014 (Request).

<sup>3</sup> The Postal Service asserts that during such an interim order, it would not change the limited set of gift cards sold or the locations where the cards are sold. Id. at 2 n.3.

The Statement of Supporting Justification (Request, Attachment B) filed through Betty Y. Su, Executive Director of Brand Marketing, states that the Gift Cards service (as part of the Greeting Cards and Stationery product) will cover its attributable costs and make a positive contribution to institutional costs, citing to the non-public library reference, Estimated Cost Coverage Calculations. Id. at 1-2. She says the market for gift cards is highly competitive and fees must be kept low to compete with other retailers. Id. at 2-3. Gift cards are widely available from private firms and surveys of customers using the product found them convenient and would be bought again, although some customers were concerned about longer lines at the post office. Id. at 4-5. She further states the likely impact on small business is minimal because small businesses tend to use the gift cards and generally larger retail chains compete in the sale of gift cards. Id. at 5. Also, the impact on the market would be considerably smaller than three percent of the relevant market. Id.

Finally, she sees a nexus between the use of gift cards and the use of the mails for sending gift cards because a majority of gift cards purchased at post offices will be mailed. Id. at 6-7. The Commission's order authorizing the market test included the condition that the Postal Service report the type of gift cards sold (open or closed loop), within 30 days of the end of the fourth quarter of FY 2011 and semi-annually thereafter: The total and net revenues; volumes, including, separately, volumes sold with greeting cards; attributable costs; and an estimate of the percentage of gift cards mailed (or likely to be mailed). Order No. 721 at 15.<sup>5</sup> The Postal Service complied and filed its periodic reports in support of its claim that a large portion of gift cards are mailed, that their sale can reasonably be classified as an ancillary service, and thus qualifies as a postal service.

The Statement of Supporting Justification relies on the various survey data collected during the market test by the Postal Service both at the Commission's direction and on its own volition. The Postal Service found that 52 percent of the purchased gift cards were, or were expected, to be mailed and concluded that every 100 gift cards sold can be expected to generate more than 98 pieces of mail. Request, Attachment B at 8. A separate survey found that 67 percent of purchasers of gift cards believed it would be more convenient to mail gift cards purchased at the post office rather than from another retailer. Id. Also, as an alternative to sending cash through the mail, the Statement of Supporting Justification notes the sale of gift cards is very similar to the sale of money orders, long regarded as a postal service. Id. at 9. The Statement of Supporting Justification concludes that the selling of gift cards at post offices qualifies as a postal service since sales are ancillary to the delivery of letters and mailable packages. 39 U.S.C. 102(5). Id. at 10.

III. Commission Action

Conditional authorization to continue sales. Market tests may be authorized for a total of up to 36 months including a one year extension. 39 U.S.C. 3641(d). Absent an order extending the market test, it must terminate June 27, 2014.<sup>6</sup> The Postal Service indicates that discontinuance of the market test during the pendency of this proceeding would be inefficient as well as inconvenient to gift card customers. To avoid the disruption of service and inconvenience if service is discontinued pending the Commission's review of the Request, the Commission will conditionally approve the addition of Gift Cards to the competitive product list as a price category of the Greeting Cards, Gift Cards, and Stationery competitive product.<sup>7</sup> This interim Order merely preserves the status quo pending the completion of this proceeding. Ample opportunity to submit comments on the Request is being provided. Thus, no person will be prejudiced by this result. Accordingly, any interested person will have an opportunity to be heard and have his/her comments considered by the Commission as part of the record in this proceeding.

Notice of filing. The Commission establishes Docket No. MC2014–26 for consideration of matters raised by the Request. Interested persons may submit <sup>6</sup> The Postal Service recognizes that its June 9 Request was not filed sufficiently in advance of the market test expiration date to provide adequate time for public input and Commission review of its Request. By filing its Request so close to the expiration date of the market test, the Postal Service jeopardizes the continuation of the service. That risk is unnecessary and is easily cured by a timelier filing, a point the Commission has previously made. See Order No. 1781, supra, at 3.

<sup>7</sup> The prices for Gift Cards currently charged by the Postal Service will apply during the pendency of this proceeding.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Investor Education and Advocacy, Washington, DC 20549–0213.

Extension:

Rule 15b6–1 and Form BDW; SEC File No. 270–17, OMB Control No. 3235–0018.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (“PRA”) (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”) a request for approval of extension of the previously approved collection of information provided for in Rule 15b6–1 (17 CFR 240.15b6–1), under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.).

Registered broker-dealers use Form BDW (17 CFR 249.501a) to withdraw from registration with the Commission, the self-regulatory organizations, and the states. On average, the Commission estimates that it would take a broker-dealer approximately one hour to complete and file a Form BDW to withdraw from Commission registration as required by Rule 15b6–1. The Commission estimates that approximately 488 broker-dealers withdraw from Commission registration annually<sup>1</sup> and, therefore, file a Form BDW via the internet with the Central Registration Depository, a computer system operated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. that maintains information regarding registered broker-dealers and their registered personnel. The 488 broker-dealers that withdraw from registration by filing Form BDW would incur an aggregate annual reporting burden of approximately 488 hours.<sup>2</sup>

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information under the PRA unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

The public may view background documentation for this information collection at the following Web site: www.reginfo.gov. Comments should be directed to: (i) Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 10102, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503, or by sending an email to: Shagufta\_Ahmed@omb.eop.gov; and (ii) Thomas Bayer, Director/Chief Information Officer, Securities and Exchange Commission, c/o Remi Pavlik-Simon, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549, or by sending an email to: PRA\_Mailbox@sec.gov. Comments must be submitted to OMB within 30 days of this notice.

<sup>1</sup> This estimate is based on Form BDW data collected over the past three years for fully registered broker-dealers. In fiscal year (from 10/1 through 9/30) 2011, 524 broker-dealers withdrew from registration. In fiscal year 2012, 428 broker-dealers withdrew from registration. In fiscal year 2013, 513 broker-dealers withdrew from registration.  $(524 + 428 + 513) / 3 = 488$ .
