

- Evaluate whether and if so how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of Information Collection: Extension of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Semi-Annual Progress Report for Grantees from the Grants to Support Tribal Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Coalitions Program (Tribal Coalitions Program).

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form Number: 1122-0011. U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: The affected public includes the 14 grantees from the Tribal Coalitions Program. The Tribal Coalitions Program grantees include Indian tribal governments that will support the development and operation of new or existing nonprofit tribal domestic violence and sexual assault coalitions in Indian country. These grants provide funds to develop and operate nonprofit tribal domestic violence and sexual assault coalitions in Indian country to address the unique issues that confront Indian victims. The Tribal Coalitions Program provides resources for organizing and supporting efforts to end violence against Indian women.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: It is estimated that it will take the 14 respondents (grantees from the Tribal Coalitions Program) approximately one hour to complete a Semi-Annual Progress Report. The Semi-Annual Progress Report is divided into sections that pertain to the different types of activities that grantees may engage in with grant funds. Grantees must complete only those sections that are relevant to their activities.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total annual hour burden to complete the data collection forms is 28 hours, that is 14 grantees completing a form twice a year with an estimated completion time for the form being one hour.

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Water Act

On Monday, June 23, 2014, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States District Court for the District of Utah (Central Division) in the lawsuit entitled United States v. Ivory Homes, Ltd., Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-00460-BCW. To settle the claims against it under the Clean Water Act (“CWA”), Ivory Homes, Ltd. (“Ivory Homes”) will pay a civil penalty of $250,000, and perform injunctive relief in the form of implementing a management and reporting system designed to provide increased oversight of on-the-ground operations and ensure greater compliance with the CWA. In return, the United States will grant Ivory Homes a covenant not to sue or take administrative action pursuant to the CWA for the civil violations alleged in the Complaint, filed simultaneously with the Consent Decree.

The case was brought under Section 402 of the CWA, 33 U.S.C. 1342, against Ivory Homes for violations of applicable permits governing discharge of storm water from five construction sites in Utah. The Complaint alleges that, at each of these five sites, Ivory Homes failed to comply with the terms and conditions of a general permit issued under Section 402 of the CWA, 33 U.S.C. 1342, which establishes conditions for discharge of storm water associated with construction activities, including clearing, grading and excavating, into waters of the State of Utah.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States v. Ivory Homes, Ltd., D.J. Ref. No. 90-5-1-1-09865.
