The company plans to import small quantities of the listed controlled substances for the National Institute on Drug Abuse for research activities.

In reference to drug codes 7360 and 7370, the company plans to import a synthetic cannabidiol and a synthetic tetrahydrocannabinol. No other activity for this drug code is authorized for this registration.

Comments and requests for hearings on applications to import narcotic raw material are not appropriate. 72 FR 3417 (January 25, 2007).

In regard to the non-narcotic raw material, any bulk manufacturer who is presently, or is applying to be, registered with the DEA to manufacture such basic classes of controlled substances listed in schedules I or II, which fall under the authority of section 1002(a)(2)(B) of the Act (21 U.S.C. 952(a)(2)(B)) may, in the circumstances set forth in 21 U.S.C. 958(i), file comments or objections to the issuance of the proposed registration and may, at the same time, file a written request for a hearing on such application pursuant to 21 CFR 1301.43 and in such form as prescribed by 21 CFR 1316.47.

Dated: July 2, 2014.
Joseph T. Rannazzisi,
Deputy Assistant Administrator.

National Institute of Justice

[OJP (NIJ) Docket No. 1662]

National Institute of Justice
 Compliance Testing Program's
 Compliant Product List for Ballistic Body Armor

AGENCY: National Institute of Justice, Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice regarding the removal of Compliant Product Lists (CPL) of ballistic resistant body armor models that met superseded versions of the National Institute of Justice (NIJ) Body Armor Standard.

DATES: Effective: August 25, 2014.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Daniel Longhurst, NIJ CTP by email at bactp@justnet.org, or by telephone at (202) 616-3857.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION: The National Institute of Justice (NIJ)-supported Compliance Testing Program (CTP) publishes on-line Compliant Product Lists (CPLs) of ballistic resistant body armor models that have satisfactorily demonstrated compliance with NIJ's Body Armor Standard.

It has been NIJ's practice to continue to provide the CPLs associated with superseded versions of the standard for purposes of historical reference. The NIJ CTP currently provides four CPLs associated with the following four specifications:

1. NIJ Standard 0101.03, Ballistic Resistance of Police Body Armor;
2. NIJ Standard-0101.04, Ballistic Resistance of Personal Body Armor;
3. NIJ 2005 Interim Requirements for Bullet-Resistant Body Armor; and
4. NIJ Standard-0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor. (Current)

Each subsequent version of the Body Armor standard incorporates new research and understanding of body armor performance with direct implications for officer safety. The existence of the CPLs associated with superseded versions of the NIJ Body Armor Standard may lead officers and agencies to believe that the body armor models listed on those CPLs have been tested to the most current version of the NIJ Body Armor Standard. To eliminate the potential for such confusion, the CTP intends to remove all older versions of the CPLs and only maintain the CPL associated with the current version of the NIJ Body Armor Standard.

When NIJ Standard 0101.06 is next revised, and for future revisions beyond that, NIJ plans to maintain the superseded CPL for a period of 12-months after publication of the revised standard to enable agencies to complete purchasing actions initiated, but not completed, when the prior version of the standard was in effect.

National Institute of Justice

[OJP (NIJ) Docket No. 1665]

License Plate Reader Manufacturer
 Practical Assessment of Proposed
 Test Methods

AGENCY: National Institute of Justice, Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of License Plate Reader Manufacturer Practical Assessment of Proposed Test Methods.

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is inviting manufacturers of vehicle-mounted license plate reader (LPR) systems to participate in a practical assessment of the proposed test methods in the tentatively titled Vehicle-mounted License Plate Recognition Systems for Law Enforcement standard under development.

DATES: Manufacturers wishing to participate must register with the International Association of Chiefs of Police no later than Friday, August 8, 2014, as instructed below. Test evaluations will take place over two days, Tuesday, August 19, 2014, and Wednesday, August 20, 2014, with a rain date of Thursday, August 21, 2014, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The test facility will be available for manufacturers to view the test setup and prepare their vehicles from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m.

ADDRESSES: Location: U.S. Customs and Border Protection Government Test Lane Facility (GTLF) in Fredericksburg, Virginia. Directions to the facility will be provided upon registration.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Manufacturers wishing to participate must register with the International Association of Chiefs of Police by August 8, 2014. To register for the LPR manufacturer practical assessment, please contact Michael Fergus at fergus@theiacp.org.

For information about the NIJ Vehicle-mounted License Plate Recognition Systems for Law Enforcement under development, please contact Mark Greene, by telephone at (202) 307-3384 [Note: this is not a toll-free telephone number], or by email at mark.greene2@usdoj.gov. For general information about NIJ standards, please visit <http://www.nij.gov/standards> or <http://www.justnet.org/standards>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is inviting manufacturers of vehicle-mounted license plate reader (LPR) systems to participate in a practical assessment of the proposed test methods in the tentatively titled Vehicle-mounted License Plate Recognition Systems for Law Enforcement standard under development. The development of this draft NIJ standard is being facilitated by IACP with support from and in coordination with NIJ under cooperative agreement 2009-IJ-CX-K009. It contains several practical tests to determine the performance of vehicle-mounted LPR systems regarding four specific functions: detection of plates, capture of images of the plates, interpretation and conversion of images into alphanumeric data, and comparison of data with a list of specified license plates (e.g., a watch list). The tests are performed using license plates set up to mimic the different common parking configurations: parallel, perpendicular, and diagonal.

The practical assessment is primarily intended to allow LPR manufacturers to familiarize themselves with tests for vehicle-mounted LPR systems in the draft NIJ standard and develop any feedback regarding those tests. Manufacturers are invited to bring a vehicle equipped with a mobile LPR system to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Government Test Lane Facility (GTLF) in Fredericksburg, Virginia. The assessment will take place over two days (see dates above). Manufacturers will be permitted to run through the test setups in an equitable fashion as time permits for the two days depending on the number of respondents to this notice.

Space is limited at the GTLF, and as a result, each manufacturer will only be allowed to bring one test vehicle. Neither NIJ nor IACP will collect any data from any manufacturer from the practical assessment. Manufacturers are encouraged to submit any feedback regarding the test methods as result of the two-day practical assessment during the forthcoming public comment period for the draft NIJ standard tentatively titled Vehicle-mounted License Plate Recognition Systems for Law Enforcement.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[NRC-2014-0163]

Setpoints for Safety-Related Instrumentation

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Draft regulatory guide, request for comment.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is issuing draft regulatory guide (DG), DG-1141, "Setpoints for Safety-Related Instruments" for public comment. This DG is proposed Revision 4 of Regulatory Guide (RG) 1.105, "Setpoints for Safety-Related Instrumentation." This DG describes proposed updates to the recommended practices and criteria for determining instrument setpoints and appropriate setpoint related criteria. This DG describes proposed practices and criteria that the staff of the NRC considers acceptable for demonstrating compliance with NRC requirements for ensuring that setpoints for safety related instruments are initially within, and should remain within, technical specification limits. This DG also proposes practices and criteria for establishing those technical specification limits and ensuring that those limits will adequately support the proper operation of the associated systems.

DATES: Submit comments by September 9, 2014. Comments received after this date will be considered if practical to do so, but the NRC is able to ensure consideration only for comments received on or before this date. Although a time limit is given, comments and suggestions in connection with items for inclusion in guides currently being developed or improvements in all published guides are encouraged at any time.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments by any of the following methods (unless this document describes a different method for submitting comments on a specific subject):

- Federal Rulemaking Web site: Go to <http://www.regulations.gov> and search for Docket ID NRC-2014-0163. Address questions about NRC dockets to Carol Gallagher; telephone: 301-287-3422; email: Carol.Gallagher@nrc.gov. For technical questions, contact the individual(s) listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this document.
