Section 212 of the Iran Threat Reduction and Syria Human Rights Act of 2012 (Pub. L. 112-158) (22 U.S.C. 8701-8795) ("TRA") requires the Secretary of State, pursuant to authority delegated by the President, to impose or waive sanctions on persons determined to have knowingly provided, on or after the date of enactment of the TRA, underwriting services or insurance or reinsurance services for the National Iranian Oil Company, the National Iranian Tanker Company, or a successor entity to either such company. When the Secretary of State imposes sanctions pursuant to section 212 of the TRA, he is required to select five or more of the sanctions described in section 6(a) of the Iran Sanctions Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-172) (50 U.S.C. 1701 note), as amended ("ISA"). Executive Order 13628 of October 9, 2012, "Authorizing the Implementation of Certain Sanctions Set Forth in the Iran Threat Reduction and Syria Human Rights Act of 2012 and Additional Sanctions With Respect to Iran" ("E.O. 13628"), requires the Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to authority under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701-1706), to implement certain sanctions set forth in section 6 of ISA, when those sanctions are selected and imposed by the Secretary of State pursuant to the TRA.

The Secretary of the Treasury is responsible for implementing the following sanctions described in section 6(a) of ISA and imposed by the Secretary of State pursuant to section 212 of the TRA: (i) With respect to section 6(a)(3) of ISA, to prohibit any U.S. financial institution from making loans or providing credits to a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA, consistent with section 6(a)(3) of ISA; (ii) with respect to section 6(a)(6) of ISA, to prohibit any transactions in foreign exchange that are subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and in which a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA has any interest; (iii) with respect to section 6(a)(7) of ISA, to prohibit any transfers of credit or payments between financial institutions or by, through, or to any financial institution, to the extent that such transfers or payments are subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and involved any interest of a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA; (iv) with respect to section 6(a)(8) of ISA, to block all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that come within the United States, or that are or come within the possession or control of any United States person, including any foreign branch, of a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA, and to provide that such property and interests in property may not be transferred, paid, exported, withdrawn, or otherwise dealt in; (v) with respect to section 6(a)(9) of ISA, to prohibit any United States person from investing in or purchasing significant amounts of equity or debt instruments of a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA; (vi) with respect to section 6(a)(11) of ISA, to impose on the principal executive officer or officers, or persons performing similar functions and with similar authorities, of a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA the sanctions described in paragraphs (i) through (v) above and (vii) below, as selected by the Secretary of State; and (vii) with respect to section 6(a)(12) of ISA, to restrict or prohibit imports of goods, technology, or services, directly or indirectly, into the United States from a person sanctioned under section 212 of the TRA.

Background

On February 5, 2012, the President issued Executive Order 13599, "Blocking Property of the Government of Iran and Iranian Financial Institutions" (the "Order"). Section 1 (a) of the Order blocks, with certain exceptions, all property and interests in property of the Government of Iran, including the Central Bank of Iran, that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of any United States person, including any foreign branch.

Section 7 (d) of the Order defines the term "Government of Iran" to mean the Government of Iran, any political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof, including the Central Bank of Iran, and any person owned or controlled by, or acting for or on behalf of, the Government of Iran.

The ITSR implements Section 1(a) of the Order. Section 560.304 of the ITSR defines the term "Government of Iran" to include: "(a) The state and the Government of Iran, as well as any political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof, including the Central Bank of Iran; (b) Any entity owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the foregoing; (c) Any person to the extent that such person is, or has been, since the effective date, acting or purporting to act, directly or indirectly, on behalf of any of the foregoing; and (d) Any other person determined by the Office of Foreign Assets Control to be included within [(a) through (c)]." Section 560.313 of the ITSR further defines an "entity owned or controlled by the Government of Iran" to include "any corporation, partnership, association, or other entity in which the Government of Iran owns a 50 percent or greater interest or a controlling interest, and any entity which is otherwise controlled by that government."

On December 12, 2013, the Director of OFAC identified new names and flagging information of thirty-three (33) vessels previously identified as property in which the Government of Iran has an interest that are blocked pursuant to the Order and the ITSR and, accordingly, revised the entries on OFAC's list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons to reflect the new information.
