

economic needs of low-income individuals and families through the creation of sustainable business development and employment opportunities.

Award funds will support renovation of the Culture, Arts, Recreation and Education Center (CARE Center) building, including architectural and engineer fees, construction permits, construction bonds, legal and accounting contracting services, seismic redesign (related to earthquake protection), heating, ventilating, air condition design and installation, fire sprinklers, and an elevator for handicap accessibility. The renovated facility will be used for culture, arts, and education activities. It will house recreational facilities, a conference training space, an outdoor community garden, and rental space for small businesses that will facilitate economic growth in the district.
