

parties' comments, and the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the Commission determined, pursuant to sections 705(b) and 735(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671d(b) and 1673d(b)), that an industry in the United States is neither materially injured nor threatened with material injury by reason of subject imports of drill pipe and drill collars from China, provided for in subheadings 7304.22, 7304.23, and 8431.43 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are subsidized and sold in the United States at less than fair value.^{2,3}

Background

In February 2011, by a vote of 3 to 3, the Commission issued affirmative threat of injury determinations in the antidumping and countervailing duty determinations of drill pipe and drill collars from China.⁴ Chinese Respondent Downhole Pipe & Equipment, LP appealed the Commission's determinations to the Court. On August 19, 2013, the Court remanded the Commission's affirmative threat determinations. Downhole Pipe & Equipment, LP v. United States, Slip Op. 13-108 (Aug. 19, 2013). On December 11, 2013, by a vote of 3 to 2, the Commission issued negative remand determinations in the above-captioned proceedings. On November 10, 2014, the Court issued an opinion affirming the Commission's negative determinations on remand. Downhole Pipe & Equipment, LP v. United States, Slip Op. 14-130 (Nov. 10, 2014).

Issued: December 12, 2014.

By order of the Commission.

Lisa R. Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

[Funding Opportunity Number: FOA-ETA-15-01]

Notice of Availability of Funds and Funding Opportunity Announcement for the National Guard Youth Challenge and Job Challenge Program

AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA).

SUMMARY: The Employment and Training Administration (ETA), U.S. Department of Labor, announces the availability of approximately $12,000,000 in grant funds authorized by Section 171, Pilot and Demonstration Projects, of the Workforce Investment Act, to: (1) Test the effectiveness of expanding the National Guard Youth Challenge Program for youth who have come in contact with the juvenile justice system for committing a status offense or a delinquent act (court-involved youth), and (2) add and test an additional job training component (DOL Job Challenge) to the program for court-involved youth and youth that have had no contact with the juvenile justice system (non-court-involved youth).

The purpose of this program is to improve the long-term labor market prospects of youth who successfully complete the six-month residential phase of the National Guard Youth Challenge program. The DOL Job Challenge component will build on the Youth Challenge program's eight core components—academic excellence, life coping skills, job skills, health and hygiene, responsible citizenship, community service, leadership/followership, and physical fitness—by emphasizing programming focused on improving program participants' employment outcomes.

The complete FOA and any subsequent FOA amendments in connection with this solicitation are described in further detail on ETA's Web site at <http://www.doleta.gov/grants/> or on <http://www.grants.gov>. The Web sites provide application information, eligibility requirements, review and selection procedures, and other program requirements governing this solicitation.

DATES: The closing date for receipt of applications under this announcement is January 27, 2015. Applications must be received no later than 4:00:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Pia Miller, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., Room N-4716, Washington, DC 20210; Telephone: 202-693-3153.

The Grant Officer for this FOA is Melissa Abdullah.

Signed December 12, 2014 in Washington, DC
