Forest Service

Powell Ranger District; Utah; Powell Travel Management Project

AGENCY: Forest Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice of intent to prepare an environmental impact statement.

SUMMARY: The Forest Service will prepare an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to disclose the effects of revising the motorized travel plan for the Powell Ranger District (District) of the Dixie National Forest. The District is proposing to relocate, reclassify, or decommission a number of existing roads and trails as well as construct or designate new roads and trails. Some of the activities are proposed within Inventoried Roadless Areas. This revision only addresses subpart B of the Travel Management Rule which provides for a system of National Forest Roads, National Forest Trails, and areas on the National Forest System (NFS) lands that are designated for motorized use. This project does not address over the snow motor vehicle use, motorized cross-country travel, nor does it revisit motorized cross-country travel for big game retrieval. The project is limited to addressing known deficiencies for the District in the 2009 Dixie National Forest Motorized Travel Plan.

DATES: Comments concerning the scope of the analysis must be received by February 9, 2015. The draft environmental impact statement is expected in August, 2015, and the final environmental impact statement is expected in March, 2016.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Purpose and Need for Action

The purpose of this project is to revise the Motorized Travel Plan for the Powell Ranger District of the Dixie National Forest. The revision is to provide a road and trail system for the District, designated for motorized use that is considered safe and responsive to public needs and desires, conforms to the Forest Plan, and is environmentally sound. This action is needed because: (1) There is a need for travel management revisions to restore or protect forest resources and conditions. (2) There is a need for travel management revisions to provide a broad range of dispersed motorized recreation opportunities; to disperse motorized recreation users to prevent overuse in popular areas; and provide safety for the user. (3) There is a need for travel management revisions to improve special and public use administration and to reduce resource impacts from these activities.
