BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 003-2015]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records and removal of one system of records notice.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-130, notice is hereby given that the Department of Justice (Department or DOJ) proposes to establish a new Department-wide system of records entitled, "Department of Justice, Giglio Information Files," JUSTICE/DOJ-017. This system has been established to enable DOJ investigative agencies to collect and maintain records of potential impeachment information and to disclose such information to DOJ prosecuting offices in order to ensure that prosecutors receive sufficient information to meet their obligations under Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). The system has also been established to enable DOJ prosecuting offices to maintain records of potential impeachment information obtained from DOJ investigative agencies, other federal agencies, and state and local agencies and to disclose such information in accordance with the Giglio decision. The purpose of publishing this Department-wide notice is to provide a comprehensive notice to cover all Department Giglio records, thereby increasing administrative efficiency and promoting consistent maintenance of Department Giglio records in accordance with the Attorney General's Giglio Policy (found in Section 9-5.100 of the United States Attorneys' Manual) as updated in 2014. Accordingly, this Department-wide system notice replaces, and the Department hereby removes, the notice for the system entitled, "United States Attorney's Office, Giglio Information Files," JUSTICE/USA-018, 65 FR 75308 (Dec. 1, 2000).

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment. Therefore, please submit any comments by April 27, 2015.

ADDRESSES: The public, OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments to the Department of Justice, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, U.S. Department of Justice, National Place Building, 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20530, or by facsimile at (202) 307-0693. To ensure proper handling, please reference the CPCLO Order Number indicated above on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Tricia Francis, Executive Office for United States Attorneys, FOIA/Privacy Act Staff, 600 E Street NW., Suite 7300, Washington, DC 20530, or by facsimile at (202) 252-6047.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This Department-wide system notice replaces the notice for the system entitled, "United States Attorney's Office, Giglio Information Files," JUSTICE/USA-018, 65 FR 75308 (Dec. 1, 2000). That system of records was exempt from certain provisions of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). Those exemptions are codified in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) section for Exemption of United States Attorneys Systems (28 CFR 16.81(g) and (h)). The Department is establishing a new CFR section for exemptions of the JUSTICE/DOJ-017 system (28 CFR 16.135) and amending 28 CFR 16.81 by removing paragraphs (g) and (h). In the meantime, the Department intends that the exemptions established in 28 CFR 16.81(g) and (h) will continue to apply to the JUSTICE/USA-018 system and all its records until 28 CFR 16.135 is effective.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this new system of records.

Dated: March 4, 2015.

Erika Brown Lee,

Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, United States Department of Justice.

JUSTICE/DOJ-017

SYSTEM NAME:

Department of Justice, Giglio Information Files.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Records in this system are located at United States Attorneys' Offices and Department of Justice litigating sections with authority to prosecute criminal cases ("DOJ prosecuting offices") as well as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the United States Marshals Service, the Office of the Inspector General, and the Office of Professional Responsibility ("DOJ investigative agencies"). For office locations, see <http://www.justice.gov> and the Web sites for DOJ prosecuting offices and investigative agencies.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals who may serve as affiants or testify as witnesses in criminal proceedings brought by the United States Attorneys' Offices and Department of Justice litigating sections with authority to prosecute criminal cases, including the Criminal Division, National Security Division, Civil Rights Division, Antitrust Division, Environment and Natural Resources Division, Tax Division, and Civil Division.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

This system contains potential witness impeachment information, including records of disciplinary actions. Potential impeachment information has been generally defined as impeaching information which is material to the defense of a federal criminal prosecution. It also includes information that either casts a substantial doubt upon the accuracy of any evidence, including witness testimony, the prosecutor intends to rely on to prove an element of any crime charged or might have a significant bearing on the admissibility of prosecution evidence. Records include, but are not limited to: (a) specific instances of witness conduct that may be used for the purpose of attacking the witness' credibility or character for truthfulness; (b) evidence in the form of opinion as to a witness' character or reputation for truthfulness; (c) prior inconsistent statements; and (d) information that may be used to suggest that a witness is biased. Impeachment files may include internal investigation reports, violations of agency rules and regulations, and other negative credibility findings based on the witness' or affiant's prior statements made under oath. Giglio systems may also include records that track requests and responses for record-keeping purposes. Other categories of records include written statements, human resources records, complaints from the public, police reports, and/or other disciplinary records. The system may also contain any related judicial rulings, pleadings, correspondence, or memoranda pertaining to the relevant criminal case. Records also include identifying information concerning covered individuals such as name, employing agency, job title, and business contact information.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

This system is established and maintained under the authority of 28 U.S.C. 516 and 547.

PURPOSE OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of this system is to ensure that the Department's prosecutors and investigative agencies receive sufficient information to meet their obligations under Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). This system enables the Department's prosecuting offices and investigative agencies to collect, maintain, and disclose records of potential impeachment information that is material to the defense of federal criminal prosecutions.

Primary users of this system will be Agency Officials, who are senior officials serving as the points of contact concerning potential impeachment information within each of the Department's investigative agencies; Requesting Officials, who are senior officials serving as the points of contact concerning potential impeachment information within each of the Department's prosecuting offices; and Assistant United States Attorneys and other Department attorneys who are prosecuting cases and have an obligation to disclose impeachment material under the Giglio decision.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

A record maintained in the system of records may be disseminated as a routine use of such record as follows:

(a) A record will be provided to a court and/or defense attorney in satisfaction of the Department's obligations under the Giglio decision.

(b) In an appropriate proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, when the Department of Justice determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding.

(c) Where a record, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law—criminal, civil, or regulatory in nature—the relevant records may be referred to the appropriate federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, or foreign law enforcement authority or other appropriate entity charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing such law.

(d) To any person or entity that the Department has reason to believe possesses information regarding a matter within the jurisdiction of the Department, to the extent deemed to be necessary by the Department in order to elicit such information or cooperation from the recipient for use in the performance of an authorized activity.

(e) A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated in connection with a federal, state, or local administrative or regulatory proceeding or hearing in accordance with the procedures governing such proceeding or hearing.

(f) A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated in an appropriate federal, state, local, or foreign court or grand jury proceeding in accordance with established constitutional, substantive, or procedural law or practice.

(g) A record relating to a case or matter that has been referred by an agency for investigation, prosecution, or enforcement, or that involves a case or matter within the jurisdiction of an agency, may be disseminated to such agency to notify the agency of the status of the case or matter or of any decision or determination that has been made, or to make such other inquiries and reports as are necessary during the processing of the case or matter.

(h) To the news media and the public, including disclosures pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2, unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(i) To a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member's behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of, and at the request of, the individual who is the subject of the record.

(j) To the National Archives and Records Administration for purposes of records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

(k) To a former employee of the Department for purposes of: Responding to an official inquiry by a federal, state, or local government entity or professional licensing authority, in accordance with applicable Department regulations; or facilitating communications with a former employee that may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where the Department requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility.

(l) To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the Department suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) the Department has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by the Department or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Department's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

(m) To such recipients and under such circumstances and procedures as are mandated by federal statute or treaty.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

None.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:STORAGE:

Records in this system are stored in paper and/or electronic format. Electronic records are stored in databases and/or on hard disks, removable storage devices, or other electronic media. Paper records may be stored in individual file folders and file cabinets with controlled access, and/or other appropriate GSA-approved security containers.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Individual records are accessed by use of data-retrieval capabilities of computers. Hard-copy formats are accessed via manual retrieval. Data will be retrieved through a number of criteria, including witness or affiant name, case name, or other personal identifier.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are safeguarded in accordance with applicable laws, rules, and policies, including the Department's automated systems security and access policies and the Attorney General's Giglio Policy, as set forth in Section 9–5.100 of the United States Attorneys' Manual. Records maintained by DOJ prosecuting offices are securely maintained and are accessible only upon a request to a Giglio Requesting Official or other senior management entrusted with this responsibility. Records are only disclosed to requesting prosecutors within the prosecuting office on a case-related, need-to-know basis. In general, records and technical equipment are maintained in facilities with restricted access. For electronic records, the required use of password protection identification and other logical safeguards also restrict access.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are retained and destroyed in accordance with applicable schedules and procedures issued or approved by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). Retention periods vary depending on the type of the record. The General Records Schedule (GRS) for Giglio files is GRS 20. All records will also be maintained in accordance with the Attorney General's Giglio Policy, found in Section 9–5.100 of the United States Attorneys' Manual. Accordingly, whenever potential impeachment information has been disclosed to the court or defense, or when a decision has been made that an agency employee should not testify or serve as an affiant because of potential impeachment information, the potential impeachment information, together with any related judicial rulings, pleadings, correspondence, or memoranda, will be retained in the prosecuting office's Giglio information file; copies will be provided to the agency official that provided the information and to the employing agency official for retention. In other circumstances, prosecuting offices may keep any written legal analysis and substantive communications integral to the analysis, including legal advice relating to the decision, and a summary of the potential impeachment information in the Giglio system of records, but the complete description of the potential impeachment information received from the Agency Official will not be maintained in this system of records. When an employee has retired, has been transferred to an office in another judicial district, or has been reassigned to a position in which the employee will neither be an affiant nor witness, and any litigation pending in the prosecuting office in which the employee could be an affiant or witness is resolved, the Requesting Official shall remove any record that can be accessed by the identity of the employee. More specifically, the records must be removed at the conclusion of the direct and collateral appeals, if any, or within one year of the agency employee's retirement, transfer, or reassignment, whichever is later.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

The system managers for this system are the Giglio Requesting Official within each DOJ prosecuting office and the Agency Official within each DOJ investigative agency, as those officials are defined in Section 9–5.100 of the United States Attorneys' Manual. Office of the Associate Attorney General; Pilot Project for Tribal Jurisdiction Over Crimes of Domestic Violence

AGENCY: Office of the Associate Attorney General, Justice.

ACTION: Announcement of successful applications for pilot project.

SUMMARY: The Associate Attorney General, exercising authority delegated by the Attorney General, is granting the requests of two Indian tribes to be designated as participating tribes under section 204 of the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, on an accelerated basis, under the voluntary pilot project described in section 908(b)(2) of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013.

DATES: This announcement is effective immediately.

ADDRESSES: Mr. Tracy Toulou, Director, Office of Tribal Justice, Department of Justice, 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Room 2310, Washington, DC 20530, email OTJ@usdoj.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Tracy Toulou, Director, Office of Tribal Justice, Department of Justice, at (202) 514-8812 (not a toll-free number) or OTJ@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 908(b)(2) of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA 2013) establishes a voluntary pilot project for Indian tribes that wish to commence exercising jurisdiction on an accelerated basis over certain crimes of domestic violence and dating violence and certain criminal violations of protection orders in Indian country. This announcement provides public notice that the Associate Attorney General, exercising authority delegated by the Attorney General, is granting the requests of two Indian tribes to be designated as participating tribes under section 204 of the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, on an accelerated basis, under the voluntary pilot project described in section 908(b)(2) of VAWA 2013. The two tribes are (in alphabetical order):

- The Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, and
- the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate of the Lake Traverse Reservation.

In deciding to grant the two tribes' requests, the Department of Justice followed the procedures described in the Department's final notice on the Pilot Project for Tribal Jurisdiction over Crimes of Domestic Violence, 78 FR 71645 (Nov. 29, 2013). The Department of Justice coordinated with the Department of the Interior, consulted with affected Indian tribes, and concluded that the criminal justice system of each of the three tribes has adequate safeguards in place to protect defendants' rights, consistent with 25 U.S.C. 1304.

Prior to exercising SDVCJ, each of the two tribes will notify its community that the tribe will soon commence prosecuting "special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction" (SDVCJ) cases. That notification will include sending press releases to the print and electronic media outlets in the tribe's area.

The Department of Justice will post on its Tribal Justice and Safety Web site (<http://www.justice.gov/tribal/>) each of the two tribes' Application Questionnaires and all the tribal laws, rules, and policies that were attached or linked to those Application Questionnaires. Once posted, these materials will serve as a resource for those tribes that may also wish to commence exercising SDVCJ in March 2015 or later.

Dated: March 13, 2015.

Stuart Delery,

Acting Associate Attorney General.
