

113–200. The provisions of the reauthorization act extend the satellite carrier statutory license under section 119 of the Copyright Act (Act) to December 31, 2019. See 17 U.S.C. 119(h). Despite some conflicting statutory language in the new law, the Judges conclude that the rates in effect on December 31, 2014, which were established by a voluntary agreement among certain satellite carriers and copyright owners and which are codified at 37 CFR 386.2(b), continue in effect, subject only to the annual royalty fee adjustment provision found at 17 U.S.C. 119(c)(2). See section 119(c)(1)(E) of the Copyright Act. 17 U.S.C. 119(c)(1)(e) (2014).¹ A proceeding to determine rates for the statutory license is not necessary.

Dated: April 16, 2015.

Suzanne M. Barnett,

Chief Copyright Royalty Judges.

Records Schedules; Availability and Request for Comments

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice of availability of proposed records schedules; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) publishes notice at least once monthly of certain Federal agency requests for records disposition authority (records schedules). Once approved by NARA, records schedules provide mandatory instructions on what happens to records when no longer needed for current Government business. They authorize agencies to preserve records of continuing value in the National Archives of the United States and to destroy, after a specified period, records lacking administrative, legal, research, or other value. NARA publishes notice for records schedules in which agencies propose to destroy records not previously authorized for disposal or reduce the retention period of records already authorized for disposal. NARA invites public comments on such records schedules, as required by 44 U.S.C. 3303a(a).

DATES: NARA must receive requests for copies in writing by May 22, 2015. Once NARA completes appraisal of the records, we will send you a copy of the schedule you requested. We usually prepare appraisal memoranda that contain additional information concerning the records covered by a proposed schedule. You may also request these. If you do, we will also provide them once we have completed the appraisal. You have 30 days after we send these requested documents in which to submit comments.

ADDRESSES: You may request a copy of any records schedule identified in this notice by contacting Records Management Services (ACNR) using one of the following means:

Mail: NARA (ACNR); 8601 Adelphi Road; College Park, MD 20740–6001.

Email: request.schedule@nara.gov.
