- OSHA's Voluntary Protection Programs;
- Protecting federal workers from retaliation; and
- Presidential POWER Initiative.

FACOSH is authorized by 5 U.S.C. 7902; section 19 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (OSH Act) (29 U.S.C. 668); and Executive Order 11612, as amended, to advise the Secretary of Labor (Secretary) on all matters relating to the occupational safety and health of federal employees. This includes providing advice on how to reduce and keep to a minimum the number of injuries and illnesses in the federal workforce, and how to encourage each federal Executive Branch department and agency to establish and maintain effective occupational safety and health programs.

OSHA transcribes and prepares detailed minutes of FACOSH meetings. The Agency puts meeting transcripts and minutes plus other materials presented at the FACOSH meeting in the public record of the meeting, which is posted at <http://www.regulations.gov>.Announcement of FACOSH Appointments

FACOSH is comprised of 16 members; eight representing federal agency management (management members) and eight from labor organizations representing federal employees (labor members). FACOSH members generally serve staggered three-year terms. The Secretary has appointed the following individuals to serve on FACOSH:

Labor members:

- Gregory Junemann, International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers; and
- Milagro Rodriguez, American Federation of Government Employees.

Management members:

- Catherine Emerson, U.S. Department of Homeland Security;
- Gary Helmer, National Transportation Safety Board;
- Richard Williams, National Aeronautics and Space Administration; and
- Patricia Worthington, U.S. Department of Energy.

Public Participation, Submissions, and Access to Public Record*FACOSH meetings:* FACOSH meetings are open to the public. Individuals attending meetings at the U.S. Department of Labor must enter the building at the Visitors' Entrance, 3rd and C Streets NW., and pass through building security. Attendees must have valid government-issued photo identification to enter. For additional information about building security measures, and requests for special accommodations for attending the FACOSH meeting, please contact Ms. Jameson (see ADDRESSES section).Submission of requests to speak and speaker presentations. You may submit a request to speak to FACOSH by one of the methods listed in the ADDRESSES section. Your request must state:

- The amount of time you request to speak;
- The interest you represent (e.g., organization name), if any; and,
- A brief outline of your presentation.

PowerPoint speaker presentations and other electronic materials must be compatible with Microsoft Office 2010 formats. The FACOSH chair may grant requests to address FACOSH at his discretion, and as time and circumstances permit.

Submission of written comments. You also may submit written comments, including data and other information, using any of the methods listed in the ADDRESSES section. Your submissions, including attachments and other materials, must identify the agency name and the OSHA docket number for this Federal Register notice. You may supplement electronic submissions by uploading documents electronically. If you wish to submit hard copies of supplementary documents instead, you must submit them to the OSHA Docket Office following the instructions in the ADDRESSES section. The additional materials must clearly identify your electronic submission by name, date, and docket number. OSHA will provide copies of your submissions to FACOSH members.

Because of security-related procedures, submissions by regular mail may cause a significant delay in their receipt. For information about security procedures concerning submissions by hand, express delivery, and messenger/courier service, please contact the OSHA Docket Office (see ADDRESSES section).

Access to submissions and public record. OSHA places comments, requests to speak, speaker presentations, meeting transcripts and minutes, and other documents presented at the FACOSH meeting in the public record without change. Those documents also may be available online at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Therefore, OSHA cautions individuals about submitting certain personal information, such as Social Security numbers and birthdates.

To read or download documents in the public record, go to Docket No. OSHA-2015-0005 at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Although all meeting documents are listed in the index of that Web page, some documents (e.g., copyrighted materials) are not publicly available to read or download there. All meeting documents, including copyrighted materials, are available at the OSHA Docket Office. Please contact the OSHA Docket Office for additional information about access to documents in the docket that are not publicly available online.

Information about using <http://www.regulations.gov> to make submissions and access the record of FACOSH meetings is available at that Web page. Please contact the OSHA Docket Office for assistance with making submissions and obtaining documents in the FACOSH record, and for information about materials that not available on <http://www.regulations.gov>.
