Background

On January 13, 2015, the FAA issued Notice No. 14-10, entitled "Reciprocal Waivers of Claims for Licensed or Permitted Launch and Reentry Activities," 80 FR 1590. The FAA requested that comments on that proposal be received on or before March 16, 2015.

After the close of the comment period, the FAA discovered that the regulatory evaluation associated with the NPRM was not posted to the docket. Therefore, to ensure that the public has the opportunity to provide comments specifically on the regulatory evaluation posted in the docket (FAA-2014-1012), the FAA is re-opening the comment period for 30 days to allow for comments on the regulatory evaluation only. The FAA will not accept or address comments on the NPRM because the comment period for the NPRM closed on March 16, 2015.

Accordingly, the comment period for Notice No. 14-10 is reopened until July 15, 2015.

Additional Information

A. Comments Invited

The FAA invites interested persons to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, data, or views. The FAA will file in the docket all comments it receives, as well as a report summarizing each substantive public contact with FAA personnel concerning this proposed rulemaking. Before acting on this proposal, the FAA will consider all comments it receives on or before the closing date for comments. The FAA will consider comments filed after the comment period has closed if it is possible to do so without incurring expense or delay. The agency may change this proposal in light of the comments it receives.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The U.S. Parole Commission is responsible for making parole release decisions for District of Columbia felony offenders who are eligible for parole. D.C. Code section 24-131(a). The Commission took over this responsibility on August 5, 1998 as a result of the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997 (Pub. L. 105-33). The Commission immediately promulgated regulations to implement its new duties, including paroling policy guidelines at 28 CFR 2.80. 63 FR 39172-39183 (July 21, 1998). In promulgating the decision-making guidelines, the Commission used the basic approach and format of the 1987 guidelines of the District of Columbia Board of Parole, but made modifications to the Board's guidelines in an effort to incorporate factors that led to departures from the guidelines. 63 FR 39172-39174. In 2000, the Commission modified the guidelines for D.C. prisoners, creating suggested ranges of months to be served based on the pre- and post-incarceration factors evaluated under the guidelines, which in turn allowed the Commission to extend presumptive parole dates to prisoners
