[License No. 05/05-0298]

LaSalle Capital Group II-A, L.P.; Notice Seeking Exemption Under Section 312 of the Small Business Investment Act, Conflicts of Interest

Notice is hereby given that LaSalle Capital Group II-A, L.P., 70 West Madison Street, Suite 5710, Chicago, Illinois, 60602, a Federal Licensee under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended (the "Act"), in connection with the financing of a small concern, has sought an exemption under Section 312 of the Act and Section 107.730, Financings which Constitute Conflicts of Interest of the Small Business Administration ("SBA") Rules and Regulations (13 CFR 107.730). LaSalle Capital Group II-A, L.P. is providing debt and equity financing to Westminster Foods II, LLC, 70 West Madison Street, Suite 5710, Chicago, Illinois, 60602. Some of the proceeds will be used to purchase Westminster Foods, LLC.

The financing is brought within the purview of § 107.730(a)(5) of the Regulations because a majority of the membership units of Westminster Foods, LLC are owned by LaSalle Capital Group, L.P., an Associate of LaSalle Capital Group II-A, L.P., therefore this transaction is considered to be financing a Small Business for the purpose of purchasing property from an Associate and it requires SBA prior written exemption.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person may submit written comments on the transaction within fifteen days of the date of this publication to the Associate Administrator for the Office of Investment and Innovation, U.S. Small Business Administration, 409 Third Street, SW., Washington, DC 20416.

Dated: June 24, 2015.

John R Williams,Acting Deputy Associate Administrator for Office of Investment and Innovation.*

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*Description of the SBDC Program

Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs) provide a wide array of technical assistance to small businesses and aspiring entrepreneurs supporting business performance and sustainability and enhancing the creation of new businesses entities. These small businesses in turn foster local and regional economic development through job creation and retention as a result of the extensive one-on-one long-term counseling, training and specialized services they receive from the SBDCs. The SBDCs are made up of a unique collaboration of SBA, state and local governments, and private sector funding resources.

SBDCs provide clients with professional business assistance regarding business plans, market research, financial preparation packages, cash flow, and procurement contracts. Special emphasis areas include: Manufacturing; international trade and export assistance; e-commerce; technology transfer; assistance for veterans, both active duty and personnel returning from deployment; disaster recovery assistance; IRS, EPA, and OSHA regulatory compliance; as well as research and development. Based on client needs, business trends and individual business requirements, SBDCs modify their services to meet the evolving needs through more than 900 local service delivery points across the nation and all U.S. Territories.

SBDCs deliver these services to small business concerns using an effective education network of 63 Lead Centers reaching out to both rural and urban areas, serving entrepreneurs of all types throughout a state or region. SBDCs can
