SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Scope of the Order

Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of the order is dispositive.

For a full discussion of the decisions taken in these preliminary results, see the Preliminary Results Decision Memorandum. The Preliminary Results Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System ("ACCESS"). Separate Rates

The following companies failed to submit a separate rate application or separate rate certification: Hebei Iron; Hunan Valin; Jiangyin Plastic; Jiangyin Steel; and Xiamen Paper. Therefore, the Department preliminarily determines that these companies have not demonstrated their eligibility for separate rate status and are part of the PRC-wide entity.³ The PRC-wide entity rate is 128.59 percent.

Preliminary Determination of No-Shipments

Wuyang Iron submitted a timely-filed certification that it had no exports, sales, or entries of subject merchandise during the POR,⁴ and a query of U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") data did not show any POR entries of Wuyang Iron's subject merchandise.⁵ In addition, CBP did not identify any entries of subject merchandise from Wuyang Iron during the POR in response to an inquiry from the Department asking CBP for such information.⁶ Based on the foregoing, the Department preliminarily determines that Wuyang Iron did not have any reviewable transactions during the POR. For additional information regarding this determination, see the Preliminary Results Decision Memorandum.

Consistent with an announced refinement to its assessment practice in NME cases, the Department is not rescinding this administrative review for Wuyang Iron, but intends to complete the review and issue appropriate instructions to CBP based on the final results of the review.⁷

Wooden Bedroom Furniture From the People's Republic of China: Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review, and Intent To Revoke Antidumping Duty Order in Part

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On February 13, 2015, the Department of Commerce (the "Department") received a request for revocation, in part, of the antidumping duty ("AD") order on wooden bedroom furniture from the People's Republic of China ("PRC")¹ with respect to jewelry armoires that have at least one front door. We preliminarily determine that the producers accounting for substantially all of the production of the domestic like product to which the Order pertains lack interest in the relief provided by the Order with respect to jewelry armoires that have at least one front door as described below.

¹ See Notice of Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Antidumping Duty Order: Wooden Bedroom Furniture From the People's Republic of China, 70 FR 329 (January 4, 2005) ("Order").

Accordingly, we intend to revoke, in part, the Order as to imports of jewelry armoires with at least one front door. The Department invites interested parties to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Effective Date: August 11, 2015.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Patrick O'Connor or Howard Smith, AD/CVD Operations, Office IV, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0989 or (202) 482-5193, respectively.

Background

On January 4, 2005, the Department published the Order in the Federal Register. On February 13, 2015, the Department received a request on behalf of Pier 1 Imports (U.S.), Inc. ("Pier One") for a changed circumstances review to revoke, in part, the Order with respect to jewelry armoires with at least one front door.² On March 11, 2015, the American Furniture Manufacturers Committee for Legal Trade and Vaughan-Bassett Furniture Company, Inc. (collectively, "Petitioners") stated that they agree with the scope exclusion language proposed by Pier One.³

On April 2, 2015, we published the Initiation Notice in the Federal Register.⁴ Because the statement submitted by Petitioners in support of Pier One's Request did not indicate whether Petitioners account for substantially all of the domestic wooden bedroom furniture production, in the Initiation Notice, we invited interested parties to submit comments concerning industry support for the revocation in part, as well as comments and/or factual information regarding the changed circumstances review. No comments were submitted by any party.

Scope of the Order

The product covered by the order is wooden bedroom furniture. Wooden bedroom furniture is generally, but not exclusively, designed, manufactured, and offered for sale in coordinated
