

improving interagency and intergovernmental coordination on flood mapping and flood risk determination, and (b) a funding strategy to leverage and coordinate budgets and expenditures across Federal agencies. Furthermore, the TMAC is required to submit an annual report to the FEMA Administrator that contains: (1) A description of the activities of the Council; (2) an evaluation of the status and performance of flood insurance rate maps and mapping activities to revise and update Flood Insurance Rate Maps; and (3) a summary of recommendations made by the Council to the FEMA Administrator.

The TMAC must also develop recommendations on how to ensure that flood insurance rate maps incorporate the best available climate science to assess flood risks and ensure that FEMA uses the best available methodology to consider the impact of the rise in sea level and future development on flood risk. The TMAC must collect these recommendations and present them to the FEMA Administrator in a future conditions risk assessment and modeling report.

Further, in accordance with the Homeowner Flood Insurance Affordability Act of 2014, the TMAC must develop a review report related to flood mapping in support of the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

Agenda: On October 20, 2015, the TMAC members will deliberate and vote on the final draft content and recommendations to be incorporated in the 2015 Annual Report, and Future Conditions Report, due in October 2015. Copies of the draft reports will be made available after October 7, 2015 and can be obtained by sending an email to FEMA-TMAC@fema.dhs.gov (attention Mark Crowell). A public comment period will take place during the meeting from 8:30 to 8:45 a.m. on the draft reports. In addition, following the TMAC's discussion of specific report sections, the public will be invited to make brief comments on the specific sections being discussed. A maximum of ten minutes will be allotted for public comment related to the specific report sections prior to the TMAC's deliberation and vote.

On October 21, 2015, the TMAC members will continue to deliberate and vote on the final draft content and recommendations to be incorporated in the two reports. If time permits, the TMAC members will discuss and coordinate on the TMAC's 2016 Reports and the next steps forward. A public comment period will take place during the meeting from 8:30 to 8:45 a.m. on the draft reports. In addition, following the TMAC's discussion of specific report sections, the public will be invited to make brief comments on the specific sections being discussed. A maximum of ten minutes will be allotted for public comment related to the specific report sections prior to the TMAC's deliberation and vote. The full agenda and additional briefing materials will be posted for review by October 12, 2015 at <http://www.fema.gov/TMAC>.

California; Major Disaster and Related Determinations

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This is a notice of the Presidential declaration of a major disaster for the State of California (FEMA-4240-DR), dated September 22, 2015, and related determinations.

DATES: Effective Date: September 22, 2015.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dean Webster, Office of Response and Recovery, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 500 C Street SW., Washington, DC 20472, (202) 646-2833.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Notice is hereby given that, in a letter dated September 22, 2015, the President issued a major disaster declaration under the authority of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq. (the "Stafford Act"), as follows:

I have determined that the damage in certain areas of the State of California resulting from the Valley Fire beginning on September 12, 2015, and continuing, is of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant a major disaster declaration under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq. (the "Stafford Act"). Therefore, I declare that such a major disaster exists in the State of California.

In order to provide Federal assistance, you are hereby authorized to allocate from funds available for these purposes such amounts as you find necessary for Federal disaster assistance and administrative expenses.

You are authorized to provide Individual Assistance in the designated areas and
