

contract personnel that will be used during the identity verification process. This information helps BPA determine eligibility for employment and access to BPA and DOE facilities. The relevant form, BPA F 5632.09e, collects name, home and email address, date and place of birth, Social Security number, and relevant Federal or contract work history. No third party notification or public disclosure burden is associated with this collection.

II. Request for Comments

BPA requests that you send your comments to the locations listed in the ADDRESSES section above. Your comments should include:

(a) The necessity of the information collection for the proper performance of BPA's functions, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden (hours and costs) of the collection of the information;

(c) Ways BPA could enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(d) Ways BPA could minimize the burden of the collection of the information, such as through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. Comments may be made available to the public, including your address, phone number, and email address. You may request that BPA withholds your personally identifiable information, but there is no guarantee that BPA will be able to do so.
